Burbank Man Will Be Arraigned On Rape Charges

BY TRAVIS GULBRANDSON
travis.gulbrandson@plaintalk.net

An arraignment has been set for 9 a.m. Tuesday for a Burbank man charged with rape, among other offenses.

Joseph T. Night, 63, has been charged with 13 counts of varying severity, including four counts of rape in the first degree, two counts of sexual exploitation of a minor, two counts of sexual contact with a child under the age of 16, two counts of aggravated incest and one count of simple assault-domestic.

Night also has been charged with interference with emergency communication and intentional damage to property.

Clay County States Attorney Teddi Gertsma said the charges followed a call that was placed Sunday, May 3.

"Law enforcement received a 911 call that an assault was occurring, and when they followed up, (their) investigation led to more charges," Gertsma said.

The charges could land Night some hefty prison time and fines.

According to a press release from the state attorney general's office, Night faces the possibility of receiving life in the state penitentiary for the rape charges alone.

Gertsma said Night has been released on a $50,000 cash-only bond, and that he must participate in a 24-7 program as a condition of his release.

Night's arraignment will take place at the Clay County Courthouse.

This Brown Bag installment will feature some of the unique hats found in the museum collection by volunteer Karen Rogat. For the past few months, Rogat has been busy inventorying more than 30 hats with varied histories, along with many clothing pieces that are a part of the museum collection.

Rogat's work is just part of the process that our volunteers are working on to get the collection ready for the move to Mead in 2017. Brown Bag attendees are encouraged to bring & wear their favorite hat.

The museum's monthly Brown Bag lunches are the first Friday of each month and are open to the public. There is no charge, but a free will donation is accepted.

AMGENTY Donates To Yankton Sertoma Club

The Avera Medical Group Ear Nose & Throat Yankton (AMGENTY) recently presented Yankton Sertoma with a $500 gift for their Better Community Through Better Hearing Program. The donation will be used to purchase soundfield amplification systems for the Yankton School District.

Yankton Sertoma has already placed 17 systems in the school district, with the goal to have a soundfield amplification system placed in each classroom in the district. This is the third year that AMGENTY has donated $500 to the program.

other options that meet the goals of expansion. Nordquist said a failure to expand Medicaid could expose some employers in Nebraska to federal penalties for having workers that aren't insured.

"I challenge our colleagues who continue to say no to Medicaid expansion to put their solution on the table," Nordquist said.

The expansion measure would offer Medicaid to more low-income adults under the Affordable Care Act. It was originally required under the health care law, but the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the federal government cannot penalize states that refuse to expand the program.

Like other states, Nebraska splits costs for the federal-state Medicaid program for the poor and disabled with the U.S. government. The federal government pays at least 50 percent. The federal contribution has slowly trended downward since the 1990s, according to the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services, although it has never dropped below the 50 percent minimum.

The federal government has agreed to pay 100 percent of the cost for new Medicaid recipients from 2014 to 2016. Aid would gradually decrease until 2020, when the federal government would pay 90 percent of the costs for patients who fall under Medicaid expansion.
