Webinars Featured During National Small Business Week

Small businesses are critical to Yankton and the entire state of South Dakota. Small business represents 96.5 percent of all employers in our state and employs 61.9 percent of our labor workforce. Small business employed over 302,000 workers in 2010. To celebrate the importance of small business, the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has announced National Small Business Week June 17-21. The Yankton Area Chamber of Commerce knows the importance of small business in Yankton and encourages the community to thank and support them during this national week.
"Take away all the small independent businesses in Yankton and what would you have left? These businesses are the backbone of our community — they face many challenges in today's market yet they remain strong in their service to our community," states Carmen Schramm, Director of Chamber Services.
While small business faces increasing competition from on-line shopping and big box discounters, there are resources that are available to them and anyone looking to start their own business. The South Dakota Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is available to help business owners remain competitive by offering no-cost business consulting service, research, financial analysis and training. Information on the SBDC can be found at www.usd.edu/sbdc or by contacting the Yankton office at (605) 665-0751. In an effort to spread the message to new and existing businesses on resources needed for their business success, the Yankton Chamber will be launching a Business Resource page on the Chamber Web site www.yanktonsd.com/businessresources. This page will list agencies, contact information and Web sites to help entrepreneurs start or grow their business.
The IRS is offering two free one-hour webinars for small businesses during National Small Business Week. These webinars offer tips and information on common mistakes made by small businesses. To find out more or to register go to:
• Tuesday, June 18 at 1 p.m. — "Knowledge is Power ... and Ignorance is not Bliss." To register go to http://www.visualwebcaster.com/IRS/94208/reg.asp?id=94208
