SPORTS DIGEST

Six Covotes To Travel To USA Track And Field Championships

VERMILLION — Six South Dakota track and field athletes will compete at the USA Track and Field Championships which starts Wednesday at Drake Stadium in Des Moines, Iowa. Five of the six are freshmen and will compete at the junior level of the USA Championships, which is held for athletes under the age of 20.

The group will be led by a trio of freshmen pole vaulters. Peter Chapman will lead off by competing in the junior men's pole vault on Thursday at 4:45 p.m. Chapman, this year's Howard Wood Relays champion, has a seasonbest height of 16 feet, 8 inches. Hunter Wilkes and Madison Mills will compete in the women's pole vault on Friday at 1:15 p.m. Wilkes was ranked 23rd in Division I this season with a height of 13-5 3/4, while Mills was 27th with a height of 13-5 1/4. The two have the fifth- and sixth-best heights in the field. Those two will also compete against future teammate Fmily Brigham, who will start classes at USD in August. Brigham enters competition with the fourth-best height of 13-6 1/4. Outside of Mills and Wilkes, two more USD athletes will compete on Friday. Coming off a 20th-place finish at the NCAA Championships Meghan Dennis will partake in the junior women's javelin at noon. Dennis has the thirdbest mark in the field with a high-mark this season of 159-3. On the men's side, Christian Nielsen will race in the junior men's 200-meters at 12:45 p.m. He has a top-time of 21.39 seconds, which 11th-best entering competition. Megan Glisar will be USD's only representative at the senior level when she competes in the high jump at 2:45 p.m. on Saturday. The sixth-place finisher at the NCAA Championships has a season-best height of 6-0, which is 13thbest in the event. Bethany Buell, who won the Division I pole vault championship on June 7, will not compete at the USA Championships after having surgery to repair a torn ligament in her left shoulder.

Home Start Times For 2013 Season VERMILLION — University of South Dakota

has announced the starting times of its six home football games to be played at the DakotaDome during the 2013 season.

Games Aug. 31 against UC-Davis and Oct. 5 against Missouri State will begin at 2 p.m. Games against Indiana State (Oct 12) Youngstown State (Nov. 2), Montana (Nov. 9) and South Dakota State (Nov. 16) will begin at

In addition to these six games, the Dakota-Dome will play host to Briar Cliff University football games during the evenings of Oct. 12, Nov. 2 and Nov. 9, and to South Dakota high school football championships on Nov. 16.

UND-USD Football Series To Resume In 2016-17

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — The University of North Dakota announced Tuesday that it will renew its football rivalry with the University of South Dakota in 2016 and 2017.

USD will travel to Grand Forks for a Sept. 17, 2016, meeting at the Alerus Center. North Dakota will then play a return game on Sept. 16, 2017, at the DakotaDome in Vermillion. By the time the first game is played, it will have been four seasons since the two schools played against each other — back in the Great

West Conference days. UND leads the all-time series 59-29-5, including a come-from-behind 38-37 victory in 2011. North Dakota also announced a home game with Drake in 2015, a home and home series with Missouri State in 2014 and 2018.

USD Marketing Earns Silver For Radio Ad

VERMILLION — The National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) has awarded a second-place award to the University of South Dakota's marketing team for best radio commercial. The radio spots were single-game ticket sales and were done with Classic Hits 106.3 morning host Randy Ham-

USD director of marketing and promotions Neal Bendesky is a co-founder of NACMA, which originated 22 years ago. He is also a current committee member for the NACMA Strategic Planning group which convenes monthly.

Initiated in 2003, the NACMA awards program honors outstanding achievement in marketing and promotions. Awards are presented in 13 categories, with each category divided into three groups based on school size and conference affiliation to promote fairness. A record number of more than 1,000 entries were received for the 2012-13 year. The winners were recognized during NACMA's 22nd annual convention at the awards ceremony Friday in Or-
