

State ROW Haying Permits Must Be Obtained

LINCOLN, Neb. — The state program allowing Nebraska landowners to obtain hay harvesting permits is now in effect. Nebraska landowners whose land abuts the state highway right-of-way have until July 30 to apply for and receive a $40 haying permit. After July 30, anyone may apply. Proof of $1 million liability insurance must accompany every application. Hay harvesting permits are governed in accordance with Chapter 39, Article 13 of the Neb.Rev.Stat. §39-1359.01. Any hay harvested without a permit will become the property of the State and may be confiscated by the Department. Applicants wishing to obtain a permit are reminded that if a permit for mowing and harvesting was issued last year, a permit for mowing and harvesting hay from that same area is not allowed this year. Interstate highways and freeways are excluded from the program. Abutting landowners who have obtained permits may begin harvesting on July 15, but others are restricted to harvesting between Aug. 1 and Sept. 15. The $40 permits will be available at NDOR area maintenance offices located across Nebraska. Complete rules and regulations for hay harvesting can be found at <http://www.transportation.nebraska.gov/hay/> or by calling your local state highway maintenance or District office.

Benefit Set For Springfield Accident Victim

BY RANDY DOCKENDORF
randy.dockendorf@yankton.net

SPRINGFIELD — A Sunday fundraiser will benefit the family of a Springfield woman who was killed in an accident earlier this month. Brenda Pisano and her unborn child lost their lives in a June 7 two-vehicle accident near Tabor. Two sons, who were passengers in the car, suffered serious but non-life threatening injuries in the crash. The driver of the other vehicle suffered minor injuries. The 36-year-old Pisano left behind her husband, Jim, and five children. In response to the family's loss, the Springfield Cub Scouts PACK-0086 will host a car wash from 1-5 p.m. Sunday at the Springfield Community Center. The Cub Scouts hold a special connection to the Pisanos and decided to help the family, said Tanya Crockett, secretary of the Scouting board. "Our Cub Scout pack recently re-established in fall 2012, with Jim and Brenda (Pisano) as our Cub Scout leaders," Crockett said. "Our pack is small but mighty!" Springfield and other area residents are grieving Brenda Pisano's death and the loss of her unborn child, Crockett said. "A family of five lost their mother ... a husband lost his wife," she said. "As a community, we would like to help support the Pisano family!" The Pisanos are in need of home repairs, and all funds raised at the car wash will assist those home projects, Crockett said. The financial assistance will come on top of other acts of kindness already shown by area residents, Crockett said. "The family is very thankful for all the support and prayers that they have received in the recent weeks from the community," she said. The Cub Scouts plan to make posters for publicizing the car wash, and an electronic poster will be sent via email, Crockett said. Persons interested in volunteering to assist with the car wash should notify a Springfield Cub Scout board member. They can be contacted at the following phone numbers and email: President, Susie Luke at (605) 464-4898; Treasurer, Kari Boyd (605) 369-2021; Secretary, Tanya Crockett (605) 464-0375 or crockett@hcinet.net; Member, Kelly Pickner (605) 660-1009.

Yankton Area Literacy Council Honors ESL Students

Yankton Area Literacy Council (YALC) recently awarded certificates to students of English as a Second Language. Margartia Mora received her certificate for completing Level 1. Adriana De Anda, Andres Jimenez, Isacc Lucero and Mayra Cerda earned their certificates for completing Level 2. Sarah Santos and Devin Westerman, student tutors from Yankton High School's Spanish Class, also were present. High School students help tutor ESL students and also have the opportunity to use Spanish, improving their personal Spanish speaking skills. The award ceremony turned into a party, complete with food from south of the border. Posole, a thick soup made with pork and hominy and topped with lettuce, shredded radishes, slices of lime, corn chips and flan were served. While most tutoring is done for one hour a week, the ESL course meets Monday through Thursday from 3:30pm to 5:00pm and on Sunday from 2:00pm to 3:00pm in the United Church of Christ Sunday School rooms. Students in this course learn the basics of the English language as well as more advanced English. Individual tutoring is available for those who cannot attend during class times. Three tutors, Uriel Buitrato-Suarez, Odie Tollefson and Veronica Trezona, share tutoring duties. For this class four study levels are covered in the course, and students are at different levels in their education. Currently only Spanish-speaking students are taking the ESL course. They are from different countries and speak in different dialects. The class has been meeting for the past year and a half. During that time, students have come from Africa and Asia, as well as South and Central America.

YALC would like to add another ESL tutor. Anyone with an interest in tutoring is welcome to contact the YALC office. To become a YALC tutor in reading, mathematics or English as a Second Language, contact YALC Coordinator Bev Calvert at 665-3048 or stop at United Way Offices, 610 West 23rd, Suite 11.
