Daily opinions from the P&D Sports Staff on local and national high school, college and pro sports.

You may have noticed this by this point — 15 pages into today's Press & Dakotan — that things look a little different today. And while it won't be this colorful every day — one can dream — it does mean you should see a more colorful sports section on a somewhat regular basis.

From a design standpoint, the new format has some positives and some negatives. The biggest negative, of course, is the size. My dream of running one of my photos at 12.625 inches by 21.5 inches in the paper has died (I'll have to settle for 10x21.5, which I'm still working on.) It does mean we have to be a little more creative in putting things together some times, but we will do our best to get the sports that belongs in our section on the pages without making it so small you need a magnifying glass to read it.

The positives, of course are easy to see, and they have to do with visibility.

You wouldn't think the difference between Page 13 and Page 1B would be that significant, but it is. First off, it's easier to share the sports section while someone else is reading news. It also means that, if we're on 1B, we have color to work with, something that I have dealt with on few occasions outside of special sections. The ability to print photos in color means that a photo like the one of the goggles on our swimming photo page (4B, you can peak at it, but come back) will appear, when it would not have had we run the page in black and white.

So this is an exciting time for assistant sports editor Jeremy Hoek and me, one we hope to make the most of.

On a side note, it's the start of a pretty exciting week for me. I am headed to Sioux Falls this morning to tape this week's edition of "Benchwarmers" on Midco Sports Network. It is my first actual TV appearance, not counting the countless highlight shots where I happened to be standing in the background. It will air Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Later this week, a lot of my old friends will be back in town for the Mount Marty College reunion. Special highlights of the weekend include Friday's alumni baseball game — gates open at 6:30 p.m. at Riverside (see more on Page 2B) — and Saturday's appearance of the band Shattered Silence, a group that includes a couple close friends.

Needless to say, this is going to be a fun week for me.

Somsen Makes Pro Debut

BILLINGS, Mont. — Yankton's Layne Somsen made his professional baseball debut Saturday night for the Billings Mustangs in a home game against the Helena (Mont.) Brewers. Billings is the rookie ball affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds.

Somsen, the 2013 Summit League Pitcher of the Year for South Dakota State, pitched two innings of scoreless relief in a 9-2 Billings win. He walked one batter and struck out one to record the hold.

G-V's Buffington Named Finalist For Inspiring Coach Of The Year

GAYVILLE — Gavville-Volin head cross country and boys' track coach Larry Buffington has been named one of 26 finalists for the 2013 Brooks Inspiring Coach of the Year.

Buffington has spent 15 years coaching track and 10 years in cross country. His girls' cross country team finished second at the S.D. State Class B Meet last fall and the Raiders took third place at the State Track Meet last month.

Those interested in voting for Buffington can do so by going to Facebook.com/BrooksRunning until July 21. The other finalists are listed on that website as well.

Glisar Competes At USA Meet

DES MOINES, Iowa — South Dakota's Megan Glisar recorded no height in the women's high jump at the USA Outdoor Track and Field Championships on Saturday.

Glisar missed on her three attempts at 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches. She finished the season with a season-best mark of 6-0 and placed sixth at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships on June 8.

The Coyotes finished this year's USA championships with three athletes earning Junior All-American status.

Worku, Kiptoo Win Grandma's

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Bazu Worku broke away from the leaders about 19 miles into the race to win the 37th annual Grandma's Marathon.

The 22-year-old Ethiopian, running in his first Grandma's

Marathon, finished nearly 4 minutes better than his personal best. The Duluth News Tribune reports he crossed the finish line in Duluth in an unofficial two 2 hours, 11 minutes and 12 seconds to beat Kenya's Ernest Kibeni.

But Worku wasn't able to beat the course record set 32 years ago by Minnesota's Dick Beardsley, who won the 1981 title in 2:09:37.

Sarah Kiptoo of Kenya won the Grandma's Marathon women's title in a course-record 2:26:32, which was 33 seconds better than the old mark of 2:27:05 set by Fira Sultanova in 2003.

AP Source: Clippers Land Rivers

BOSTON (AP) — Doc Rivers will be the next coach of the Los Angeles Clippers if the NBA approves the rare but not unprecedented trade of an active coach, a Boston Celtics official told The Associated Press on Sunday night.

The deal would bring Boston a first-round draft pick in 2015, according to the official, who spoke on the condition of anonymity because the deal couldn't be final until a trade call with the NBA office. Rivers, who had three years and $21 million left on his contract with the Celtics, must also reach an agreement on a new deal with the Clippers.

Celtics spokesman Jeff Twiss said the team had no announcement.

The tentative agreement on Sunday wraps up weeks of haggling over the deal and frees Rivers from presiding over the dismantling of the team that won the franchise's 17th NBA title in 2008.

The Celtics and Clippers have also discussed sending Kevin Garnett to Los Angeles in a package with Rivers for draft choices, center DeAndre Jordan and point guard Eric Bledsoe. But NBA commissioner David Stern nixed those talks this week, saying teams aren't allowed to trade active players for a coach.

Rivers took over the Celtics in 2004 in the midst of the longest title drought in franchise history and — with thanks to the New Big Three of Garnett, Paul Pierce and Ray Allen — guided them to the 2008 NBA title. They returned to the NBA Finals two years later, losing to the Los Angeles Lakers in seven games.
