USD Student Is Glenn Miller Scholarship Competition Finalist

VERMILLION — University of South Dakota student Brody Krogman, of Sioux Falls is a finalist in the Glenn Miller Scholarship Competi-

Krogman, a freshman music major and a student of Brandon Hendrickson, D.M.A., assistant professor of Voice/Opera at USD, was required to send in an audition CD containing two songs of contrasting style. The competition is open to all students that are seniors in high school and freshmen in college.

"I feel honored to be competing against nine other peers that have achieved excellence in singing," Krogman said. "Since attending the University of South Dakota, I have had many successes and wonderful opportunities. The music faculty at USD is incomparable and I would encourage any talented young musicians to be part of the USD College of

In just his first year at USD, Krogman was the bass soloist for a performance of Haydn's "Creation, auditioned and was selected to the bass roster of the South Dakota Chorale and, just recently, he won first place at the district level of the National Association of Teachers of Singing Competition. As a finalist in the Glenn Miller Scholarship Competition, Krogman will compete against nine additional students during the competition's first night, June 14. Out of this competition three vocalists and three instrumentalists will be chosen for scholarship awards. First place in each category will receive $4,500; second place — $2,000 and third place will receive $1,000.

International Harvester Club Event Set For Huron June 26-28

HURON — The International Harvester Collector's Club (IHCC) has selected the State Fair Grounds in Huron as the host site for the National Red Power Round-Up to be held June

This 25th annual anniversary celebration will bring people together to see the history of International Harvester and agriculture-related memorabilia.

Along with an impressive selection of approximately 1,000 tractors, Steve Masat of Redfield, the S.D. Red Power/Chapter 21 key organizer of the event, expects 15,000 to 20,000 people to attend. Additional exhibits will include engines, trucks, equipment, household appliances, milking equipment and

This event will be a once in a lifetime opportunity to see unique exhibits which include the 1924 International Harvester Farmall Tractor, the first one ever produced. Along with it will be the very last IH Farmall Tractor ever produced, the 1985 model 5488.

Youngsters who attend the event will be entertained with several kids' activities planned by the Ag Committee of the Huron Chamber & Visitors' Bureau. There will be a pedal tractor maze kids' scavenger hunt crafts, a corn sand box, rope making and a featured movie. Children's book author. Billy Steers, will be featured as he illustrates stories from his "Tractor Mac" series.

Other highlights will include the James River Blue Grass Band, Mogen's Heroes, Ranch Rodeo Performance, the Crafts/Flea Market, Quilt Trunk Shows and contest, a daily parade and special presentations from Rodney Miller, owner and host of "Small Town Big Deal" television show.

This will be the farthest west and north for the Red Power Round-Up. South Dakota last hosted the event at Madison in 1997. The three-day gathering will provide fun for the entire family. The show will offer a unique and rare opportunity for people of South Dakota and around the world to experience a show of this nature and see how American agriculture was shaped. South Dakota Red Power/Chapter 21 welcomes all international harvester collectors, vendors and the general public to the 2014 National Red Power Round-Up.

"My ambitions for this trip don't extend much beyond enjoying myself and, I hope, giving amusement to people who come to listen to me," he stated. "I would be pleased to hear from anyone who has read my essay and feels the need to comment."

Harrison is scheduled to speak Tuesday, June 24, at the Rotary Club meeting held at the Hillcrest Golf and Country Club. Those wishing to RSVP for lunch can call the Yankton Area Chamber of Commerce at (605) 665-7811.

Harrison will also speak at 6:30 p.m. June 24 at the Yankton Community Library. The event is free and open to the public, and copies of South Dakota History will be available at the event.

The Mount Marty College Book Store will be carrying South Dakota History, too.

Harrison can be reached at fraserharri-

Call For Artists: Art For State Buildings Proposals

PIERRE — South Dakota artists have until June 18 to submit purchase proposals for the South Dakota Art for State Buildings Program.

The Art for State Buildings program was created for the purpose of adding the work of talented South Dakota artists to the state's permanent art collection for display in conference and meeting rooms and other areas of state government buildings with significant public access. Work purchased this year will be installed in public access areas of the Capitol and/or other state buildings in the Capitol Complex.

Proposals for work artists would like to sell to the state should be submitted to the South Dakota Arts Council, the agency charged with managing the program. South Dakota artists whose body of work has contributed to the state's cultural heritage and development are encouraged to apply.

Proposals will be reviewed by an advisory committee to the South Dakota Arts Council. Selection will be based on:

- quality of the work
- the artwork's relevance to South Dakota environment, history, heritage or culture
- experience of the artist
- · permanence and safety, as required for public artworks

For a complete request for proposal, visit www.artscouncil.sd.gov/, call 605-773-3301, email sdac@state.sd.us or write the South Dakota Arts Council at 711 E. Wells Ave., Pierre, SD 57501.

An office of the South Dakota Department of Tourism, the South Dakota Arts Council's mission is to provide grants and services to artists, arts organizations and schools across the state, with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts and the state of South

In July, young artists ages first through sixth grade will discover How Art Works at Kids Studio Summer Session held at G.A.R. Gallery. Artists Sue Hill and Jessi Koch will teach fundamental art concepts of line, balance, texture, unity, focal point, movement, and contrast through exploratory drawing and painting techniques. The class will include indoor and outdoor adventures for artistic inspiration. Space is limited, but those interested can register through the City of Yankton's Summer Parks and Recreation Program or visit www.YanktonAreaArts.org for more details.

With the generosity of top sponsor, First Dakota National Bank. Yankton Area Arts is hosting an event on Saturday, July 19 like no other: Meridian Dîner en Blanc-simply white, extraordinarily artful. Imagine a magical evening of allwhite elegance atop the Meridian Bridge ... tables and chairs fitted with crisp white linens; white lights aglow; guests dressed in all-white enjoying a fine French-inspired catered picnic; brilliant music by the 15-piece Bridge City Brass; and professional artists Ari Albright, Jessi Koch, Scott Luken, and Cheryl Peterson-Halsey creating art "live." This inaugural upscale gathering will not only be an artistic experience on Meridian Bridge, enhancing the function and value of the city's premier public space, it will also provide fundamental financing for the continuation and growth of Yankton Area Arts programming. Tickets are $50 and can be purchased at www.YanktonAreaArts.org or at

G.A.R. Gallery.

Also on the YAA website, find a call for entries for the YAA annual Mighty Mo Photo Show to be held July 25-Sept. 2. The Mighty Mo Photo Show is an area photographic competition designed to compliment Yankton's Annual Riverboat Days celebration and to encourage and recognize the talents of area photographers. All photographers living in South Dakota, Iowa, or Nebraska are invited to participate. This year's theme is based on photographic interpretations of poetry submitted in the Mighty Mo category of the South Dakota State Poetry Society

(SDSPS) competition sponsored by Yankton Area Arts. Entries do not have to include the Missouri River in the composition of the photo, but each entry must be a distinct photographic interpretation of one of the 10 Mighty Mo poems from the SDSPS entries. These 10 poems can be obtained at www.YanktonAreaArts.org or by calling the YAA office at 605-665-9754

Of course, it just wouldn't be summer in Yankton without the annual Summer Arts Festival in conjunction with Riverboat Days, this year to take place Aug. 15-17. This year marks the 30th anniversary of Summer Arts Fest, and YAA is once again planning for an amazingly artful time. More than 160 booth spaces will fill with fine art and fine crafts for the community and guests to enjoy. Additionally, YAA will present Jami Lynn and Dylan James in concert as well as Dallas Chief Eagle and his daughter in a cultural hoop dancing program.

The summer calendar tells no lies: Yankton Area Arts is committed to bringing quality arts programming and cultural enrichment to the Yankton community.

Yankton Area Arts is a nonprofit arts organization located at 508 Douglas Avenue in Yankton. Its mission is to educate, advocate, and enrich Yankton by integrating the Arts within the community. The G.A.R. Hall Art Gallery is open to the public free of charge from 1-5 pm weekdays and from 1-3 pm on Saturdays. For more information, call the YAA office phone at (605) 665-9754 or email Executive Director Jackie Quinn at yaa@iw.net.
