Kathol Earns All-Star Honors

NORFOLK, Neb. — Former Hartington Cedar Catholic standout Taylor Kathol earned defensive Player of the Game honors for the Red team as the Red squad beat the White squad 20-14 in the second annual Northeast Nebraska All-Star Football Classic, held Saturday at Norfolk's Veterans Memorial Field.

Kathol finished with four tackles in the contest.

Davis Wieseler (Wynot) also contributed for the Red squad, catching a 22-yard touchdown pass from Shaka Taylor of Lutheran High Northeast.

Also in the game, Jacob Morrill (Creighton) rushed for 24 yards on six carries. Defensively, Connor Wieseler (Cedar Catholic) recorded six tackles, Evan Woodman (Crofton) and Austin Gubbels (Randolph) each recorded four tackles, Charlie Charlson (Ponca) and Eric Kleinschmit (Crofton) had three tackles and Ty Dybdal (Hartington) had one stop.

Wirth Ties For 12th At NCAA Meet

EUGENE, Ore. — South Dakota State junior Mary Wirth tied for 12th in the women's high jump at the NCAA Division I Outdoor Track & Field Championships, earning second-team All-American honors.

She is the first Jackrabbit on the women's side to be named an All-American in the Division I era.

Wirth cleared 5-9 3/4 in the meet. During the 2013-14 school year, she set both high jump school records (indoor 5-10, outdoor 5-10 3/4), won the 2014 Summit League Outdoor Track & Field Championships high jump title, placed second at the 2013-14 Summit League Indoor Track & Field Championships in the high jump, named Academic All-League and named Summit League Track & Field Female Athlete of the Week (April 1).

Augie's Winter Signs With Canaries

SIOUX FALLS — Former Augustana College baseball star Kye Winter signed with the Sioux Falls Canaries of the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball the organization announced on Saturday. Winter is the fourth former Viking to lace up the cleats for the Canaries.

Winter becomes the 17th player from Augustana to sign a professional contract to play baseball, and the second this week after former Viking Tony Viger signed with the Lincoln Saltdogs, also of the American Association, on Tuesday.

The Willow Lake native is the ninth player to sign a professional contract under the guidance of Augustana skipper Tim Huber. Winter joins Viger, Jordan Milbrath, Bret Severson, Nate Baumann, Drew Heithoff, Derek Hansen, Casey Jacobson, and Charlie Dubanoski.

Winter displayed his all-around versatility for the Vikings in 2014. He was a Daktronics All-America First Team selection along with Viger. The former Clark High standout was also selected to the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference All-Conference First Team as both an outfielder and pitcher, the only player to receive such honors.

Winter had a career year for Augustana this past season. He hit a career-high .365 at the plate, which ranked 18th in the NSIC. Winter also set career highs in runs scored (39), hits (62), doubles (18), RBI (43), and stolen bases (16).

The former Viking also delivered on the mound for Augustana this last year, going a career-best 8-1 as a starting pitcher. Winter posted a 3.81 ERA on the hill, and had a career-high in innings pitched (65.0) and strikeouts (61).

Wirth has been the coach of the Spitfire for 10 years. With one player 14 and under eligible and four players 16 and under eligible, the Spitfire are one of the youngest 18 and under teams in the league.

"We are pretty young but we have got a lot of talent. We can hit the ball. I think we will be pretty good," said Spitfire player Karlee Kozak.

Kozak also plays for the Mount Marty College softball team, as does teammate Jessica Wirth. This will be the last year that Kozak, Wirth and Brooke Loecker will be eligible to play for the Spitfire.

"I'm going to miss it," Kozak said. "I guess I still have my college seasons. But I will miss these girls." The Spitfire won the championship in their division, which included teams in the 18-under and 16-under age groups.

"I am very proud of the girls," Wirth said. "It's been really fun."

Former Top Recruit Heaps Transferring To Miami

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP) — Quarterback Jake Heaps is transferring from Kansas to Miami, where the former five-star recruit will join a team short on experienced passers.

Hurricanes coach Al Golden announced in a news release Sunday that Heaps has signed a financial aid agreement with the school. He has already graduated and will be eligible to play immediately.

Miami is trying to find a replacement for last year's starter, Stephen Morris.

Ryan Williams, who was the backup to Morris, was expected to enter next season as Miami's starting quarterback, but he is recovering from a knee injury. That leaves redshirt freshman Kevin Olsen, sophomore Gary Crow and incoming freshmen Brad Kaaya and Malik Rosier competing for the job.

Heaps, from Sammamish, Washington, started his college career at BYU after being one of the top quarterbacks in the 2010 recruiting class.

He threw for 2,316 yards and 15 touchdowns as a freshman for the Cougars, but struggled as a sophomore, starting six games.

He transferred to Kansas and after sitting out 2012, had a disappointing 2013 with the Jayhawks. He completed 49 percent of his passes last season, with eight touchdowns and 10 interceptions.

Montell Cozart came out of spring practice as Kansas' No. 1 quarterback and Heaps decided to move on for his last year of eligibility.

Kaymer Closes Out Wire-To-Wire US Open Win

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — The U.S. Open trophy Martin Kaymer won Sunday was all he needed to prove he was anything but a one-hit wonder in the majors, and that the two years he spent trying to build a complete game were worth all the doubt that followed him.

As he set it down on the table, Kaymer rubbed off a tiny smudge on the gleaming silver, which was only fitting.

Over four days at Pinehurst No. 2, he dusted the field in a performance that ranks among the best.

Kaymer set the 36-hole scoring record by opening with a pair of 65s. He never let anyone closer than four shots over the final 48 holes.

Equipped with a five-shot lead, he was the only player from the last eight groups to break par.

Welcome back, Martin. "You want to win majors in your career, but if you can win one more, it means so much more," Kaymer said after closing with a 1-under 69 for an eight-shot victory over Rickie Fowler and two-time heart transplant recipient Erik Compton.

"Some people, especially when I went through that low, called me a one-hit wonder and those things. So it's quite nice proof, even though I don't feel like I need to prove a lot to people. But somehow, it's quite satisfying to have two under your belt."

The 29-year-old German is a forgotten star no more.

Kaymer returned to the elite in golf by turning the toughest test in golf into a runaway at Pinehurst No. 2, becoming only the seventh player to go wire-to-wire in the 114 years of the U.S. Open. Only three players finished the championship under par. One guy appeared to be playing a different tournament.

"No one was catching Kaymer this week," Compton said. "I was playing for second. I think we all were playing for second."

Only a late bogey kept Kaymer from joining Tiger Woods and Rory McIlroy as the only players to finish a U.S. Open in double digits under par. He let his putter fall to the ground when his 15-foot par putt on the 18th hole dropped into the center of the cup, like so many others had this week.

Kaymer finished at 9-under 271.

His last two wins are the U.S. Open and The Players Championship, with the strongest and deepest field in golf. He never trailed after any round in both of them.

"Martin was playing his own tournament," Fowler said after recovering from a double bogey on the fourth hole to close with a 72.

This U.S. Open really ended Friday.

No one had ever opened 65-65 in the U.S. Open, which broke the 36-hole record that McIlroy set three years ago rain-softened Congressional. When it could have gotten away from Kaymer in the third round, he stayed strong for a stabilizing 72.

"He kind of killed the event in the first two days," Henrik Stenson said. "He went out and shot two 65s and left everyone in the dust."

He did it again in the final round.

Knowing the gallery was against him — the loud cheers for Fowler, clapping when Kaymer's ball bounded over the back of the second green — he holed a 10-foot par putt, and then drilled a driver on the 313-yard third hole onto the green to set up a two-putt birdie.

Fowler, in the final group of a major for the first time, fell back quickly on the fourth hole. He sent his third shot from a sandy path over the green and into some pine trees and had to make a 25-foot putt just to escape with double bogey.

"It was probably the toughest day that I played golf today, especially the first nine," Kaymer said. "Because if you have two or three Americans chasing you, playing in America, it's never easy being a foreigner. But I said at the ceremony as well that the fans were very fair. But it was a tough one. If you lead by five shots, it's not easy."

"A lot of people think, 'Well, you have a little bit of a cushion.' But if you approach that day in that way, with that attitude, it can be gone so quickly."

No chance on this day.

Compton was the only player who really put up a fight. His birdie on No. 8 got him within four shots. Three bogeys in a five-hole stretch on the back nine did him in. Even so, Compton received a standing ovation walking the 18th green. He somehow scratched out a par from 50 yards away against the lip of a bunker.
