Area Programs Rank In All-Sports Standings

LINCOLN, Neb. — The athletic programs from Crofton, Hartington and Wausa all ranked among the top overall sports programs in Nebraska, as the Nebraska School Activities Association announced the final U.S. Cellular Cup standings.

In Class D, Hartington tied for third in the overall standings, with Wausa finishing 10th. Hartington also placed fourth in the boys' standings

In Class C, Crofton finished fourth in the overall rankings - the highest-ranking public school. CHS finished second in the girls' rankings, just 2.5 points behind Columbus Scotus.

Also in Class C, Randolph placed tenth in the boys' rankings.

Roosevelt's Lembcke

Earns Gatorade Honor CHICAGO — Sioux Falls Roosevelt thrower Jack Lembcke has been named the Gatorade South Dakota boys' track and field Athlete of the Year. He is the first boys' track and field honoree from Roosevelt High School.

The 6-foot-3, 255-pound senior throws specialist won a pair of individual state championships this spring and led the Roughriders to a second-place finish as a team at the Class AA state meet. Lembcke captured gold by hurling the shot put 60 feet, 0.75 inches and completed the double by launching the discus 179-9. The 2014 Class AA Outstanding Field Performer at the state meet, his seasonbest effort in the discus (189-8) at the Howard Wood Dakota Relays ranked as the nation's No. 16 performance among prep competitors in 2014 at the time of his selection. Lembcke has maintained a 3.04 GPA in the classroom. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, he has volunteered locally on behalf of Habitat for Humanity, Sportsmen Against Hunger and as a peer math and science tutor.

Lembcke has signed a National Letter of Intent to compete in track and field on an athletic scholarship at the University of Washington this fall.

> going to take, I'm going to try to get ahead and throw my pitches, and that's what happened today."

Texas scored twice in each of the first two innings to lead 4-0, with a couple of the runs crossing the plate as a result of quirky plays. Thornhill took it from there, with Curtis pitching a 1-2-3 ninth inning.

The Longhorns are batting just .198 at the CWS, but with the pitching staff operating as it is, no one in burnt orange is worried.

Chad Hollingsworth and Travis Duke held UC Irvine scoreless on four hits Wednesday, and Thornhill (9-3) allowed only six singles while leading Texas to its 13th shutout of the season. Parker French (7-5), who

"It's nice to see all the older guys who can still sort of play," he said. "I'm sure vou'll see some jersey pulling and maybe a couple yellow cards All in good fun, he pointed out, with a smile. Now that the YYSA was successful in its sanctioning attempt, the next goal is new fields, Lillie said. 'We've got a big job ahead of us, but it's exciting to see that the former players are just as anxious as the current players," she said. Former players like Smith said they followed the situation closely and applauded the school board for making the decision to sanction high school soccer. It showed that soccer continues to grow in Yankton, Smith added. "It's gradually increasing," he said. "Sanctioning was a great thing for this town; for the younger kids.

VIRCINIA-OLE MISS GAME IS SUS-PENDED: OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The College World Series game between Virginia and Mississippi was suspended after a 93-minute lightning and rain delay at TD Ameritrade Park on Friday night.

The game, tied 0-0, will resume Saturday at 3 p.m. EDT with Virginia batting in the top of the sec-ond inning. The Cavaliers have runners on first and second base.

Virginia would advance to next week's best-ofthree finals with a win. If Mississippi wins, the teams would play again Sunday. Texas and Vanderbilt will play a second bracket final on Saturday at 7 p.m. following the Longhorns' 4-0 win on Friday.

Friday night's game originally was delayed because of lightning Heavy rain moved in and forced the suspension of the game. More than an inch of rain fell in a half-hour at TD Ameritrade Park.

Soccer

It was also a nice opportunity to catch up with former zie Mills and Connor Bach: OFs Dale Carey, Matthew Page, Clay Williamson and Bryan Langlois; SSs Chris Riopedre and Conor Keniry; C Jakson Reetz; 3B Austin Davidson; and 1B Ryan Ripken on teammates and to see younger players up close, according to Kyle Smith, a 2007 YHS graduate.

"I was anxious to see everyone I used to play with," the 25-year-old Smith said. "I think that's probably the main reason for most of us; to come out here and have fun with friends.

The teams were broken up into red and white squads, and in the women's game, the red team (younger players) defeated their older opponents 5-1. Even in preparation for the men's game, Smith ioked that it might look, on the surface, that the older alumni could still run up and down the field. "We'll see how we look later," he joked before the game. Benjamin agreed, pointing out that the men's game was likely to be rather physical.

"If there wasn't soccer, most of those kids wouldn't have a favorite sport to play.

And it was much the same situation with the alumni games, Newman said. Given the opportunity, players jumped at the chance to keep playing.

"I was so excited when I
