CWS Notes

Monday was the seventh one-run game at the CWS, tying the record for the metal-bat era that started in 1974.

Spitfire

pointed out Tuesday, both aren't exactly the rah-rah type.

"They're more vocal than they ever have been, and I think a year of college helped with that," said Wirth, mother of Jess. "In the past they were more silent leaders."

The Spitfire had a similar situation last summer, when Katie Koletzky and Lizzy Bye had already graduated from high school. But the case of Kozak and Wirth is different, given their Mount Marty connection.

Both played significant action as freshman for the Lancers this spring. Kozak batted .302 with 10 runs in 33 games, while Wirth batted .271 with three home runs and 11 RBI in 28 games.

Transitioning from high school and club softball into NAIA softball was understandably an adjustment,

SPORTS DIGEST

Cunningham, Lee Win At Hartford

HARTFORD — Jimmie Cunningham of Yankton and Jacob Lee of Parkston won their age group titles at the SDGA First Dakota National Bank Junior Tour event on Tuesday at Central Valley Golf Course in Hartford.

Cunningham claimed the 11-under title, shooting a nine-hole score of 41 for a three-stroke victory.

Lee won the boys' 14-15 year-old division with a 77, one stroke better than Tate Arends of Orange City, Iowa.

In the girls' 16-18 year-old division, Nikki Nelson of Geddes placed third (86), with Vermillion's Kayla Stammer (90), Kyleigh Moran (92) and Kate Brockevell (97) placing sixth, seventh and eighth.

J.J. Cooney of Lake Andes placed third in the boys' 16-18 year-old division, shooting a 73 to finish one stroke off the pace.

In the girls' 11-under division, Vermillion's Alexandra Carr placed fourth with a nine-hole score of 66.

Parkston's Weber Signs With Augustana Men's Golf

STOUX FALLS — Augustana head men's golf coach Steve Klock announced the signing of three more players to his 2014 recruiting class. Dakota Wavrek, Jake Weber and Ted Urch will join Parker Kiltzke to round out the incoming class.

Weber is four-time letterwinner hailing from Parkston High School. The Parkston native is also a two-time All-State selection, both coming under the guidance of head coach Tyler Hockett during his junior and senior seasons.

Weber was part of two region championship teams and a state runner-up squad in his senior season. He also finished third in the state championship on the individual leaderboard his senior year.

This is our largest class in my tenure at Augustana and we will have a big impact on our team over the next four years," Klock said. "We are working our way towards our goals and these players are excited to join our upperclassmen and contribute right away."

Baseball: Tereshinski Classic Schedule Adjusted

DUE to a team having to withdraw from this weekend's Bob Tereshinski Wood Bat Classic, the Yankton Baseball Association has announced a new schedule for this weekend's tournament. The event will be played Saturday and Sunday at Riverside Field.

Saturday play will begin with the Yankton Lakers against the South Dakota Swarm at 11 a.m., followed by the Swarm against Mitchell at 1:30 p.m.

On Sunday, play begins with the Lakers facing Mitchell at 4 p.m., followed by the Cyclones against the Lakers at 6:30 p.m.

The third place game will be played at 2:30 p.m., with the championship at 4:45 p.m.

USD Women's Soccer Announces 2014 Schedule

VERMILION — A home season opener against Northern State and road trips to Arkansas and Arizona highlight South Dakota's 2014 fall soccer schedule announced Tuesday by head coach Mandy Green.

The Coyotes will look to the leadership of senior goalkeeper MacKenzie Viktor and the help of nine incoming freshmen to improve upon last year's Summit League standings.

South Dakota will play an exhibition match at home against Viterbo on Aug. 16. Regular season kicks off during move-in weekend as the Coyotes face Northern State on Aug. 22 and the College of St. Mary's on Aug. 24.

The Coyotes will be on the road for the following two weeks as they head south for four games. South Dakota will first travel to Little Rock, Ark., to play Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Aug. 29, then face Arkansas-Little Rock two days later.

South Dakota returns home for a three-game stretch against Wyoming, Creighton and North Dakota. Two away games against Northern Iowa and Drake will finish off their non-conference schedule.

Summit League play kicks off at home against Omaha on Oct. 3. In addition to Omaha, the Coyotes will host Fort Wayne (Oct. 5), North Dakota State (Oct. 12) and South Dakota State (Oct. 24) in league play.

Cardinals' Gonzales Set To Debut In Familiar Park

DENVER (AP) — Marco Gonzales grew up rooting for the Colorado Rockies, even pitched at Coors Field a few times in his high school career.

Perhaps it's only fitting the St. Louis Cardinals left-hander will make his major league debut in familiar surroundings Wednesday.

His father, Frank Gonzales
