As I sat in the doctor's office, waiting to pay for the next year's contact lenses, another patient brought up that the summer was half-over. This, of course, was not something I wanted to hear. But was I looked back, it has already been a full and busy summer. Of course, it did start "late," as the S.D. State Track and Field Championships concluded on May 31. Also that weekend, the American Legion baseball season got going in earnest with a rain-shortened Lewis & Clark Wooden Bat Classic. Yankton, one of the co-hosts of that tournament, has already rolled up 21 wins on the season, counting Wednesday's victory at Vermillion, one of the other hosts. After a tough spring, I was not sure what to expect from them, but they have more than lived up to their potential so far. Yankton is also up-and-running with its other summer endeavors, including dodging raindrops to get

Excitement Of This Summer Far From Over

The Yankton Girls' Softball Invitational in Soccer had better luck the following weekend, though the threat of Sunday storms scared the Yankton Swim Team into canceling the final day of its event. As busy as the first four weeks of the summer have been, things haven't even come close to reaching peak levels of activity in Yankton. On the golf courses, you'll see both the Thrivent Financial Charity Pro-Am (July 25-27 at Fox Run) and the Hillcrest Invitational Pro-Am (July 31-Aug. 3 at Hillcrest). Also on July 25, the S.D. State B American Legion baseball tournament begins in Tabor. The younger kids take over Riverside Field on Aug. 1, as the S.D. State Class AA 13-14 Majors Tournament will begin in Yankton. It is also been rumored that the opening weekend of the S.D. State Class A Amateur Baseball Tournament will run Aug. 8-10 in Yankton. Meanwhile, the Easton Yankton Archery Complex will host the 69th annual NFAA Outdoor Nationals (July 30-Aug. 3), followed by the IFAA World Field Archery Championships (Aug. 4-8). So, while the summer may be half-over, the excitement of summer is far from over.
