MMC: Ausdemore Scholarship Endowed

The Mount Marty College Office of Advancement is pleased to announce the recent creation of an endowed scholarship fund by Arylce (Schumacher) Ausdemore and her husband Don Ausdemore, formerly of Crofton, Nebraska, and currently residing in Sault Sainte Marie, Michigan. The Don Ausdemore and Arylce (Schumacher) Ausdemore Scholarship was established to give back to the College and the community of Crofton, NE, by providing financial assistance for an education major from Crofton.

Arylce (Schumacher) Ausdemore is a 1966 graduate of MMC and both her and husband Don graduated from Crofton High School.

"Growing up in Crofton, we developed a deep appreciation for family, faith and community. This is our way of giving back to the communities of Crofton and Mount Marty College," stated Arylce. "Scholarships at Mount Marty College are a great way to create a lasting and meaningful difference in the lives of our students. We truly appreciate the generosity that the Ausdemores have shown," stated MMC Director of Planned Giving Shannon Viereck.
