Independence Day Edition Coming Up

The Yankton Press & Dakotan is planning a special Independence Day edition to be released on Saturday, July 4. We are asking our readers to take part in this project with some of their personal reflections on the holiday.

• What is your favorite memory from the Fourth of July holiday? What stands out most to you from past celebrations?

• Also, we want to know what America's freedom means to you. The holiday symbolizes the liberties that define this nation and our lives as Americans. What do you appreciate most about being an American?

You can send your thoughts on one or both of those questions. Please send them to us at Fourth of July, c/o News, 319 Walnut St., Yankton, SD 57078; or send to news@yankton.net/. We ask that you respond to us by June 30.

MMC Named Catholic College Of Distinction

Mount Marty College of Yankton was recently named among the 2015 Catholic Colleges of Distinction. The college is among a select group of Catholic colleges in the United States to earn this impressive designation for 2015-16.

To become a Catholic College of Distinction Mount Marty College met criteria in four areas of excellence, including:

- Being nationally recognized by education professionals as an excellent school and have been honored for the excellence of its programs.
- Is strongly focused on teaching undergraduates.
- Home to a wide variety of innovative learning experiences from study abroad to service learning and scientific research.
- Has an active campus with many opportunities for personal development.
- Highly valued by graduate schools and employers for its outstanding preparation.

According to Catholic Colleges of Distinction, the institutions on the list foster environments that are conducive to spiritual growth while preparing students for their futures. Students who attend Catholic Colleges of Distinction desire an education with a Catholic worldview where they learn how to implement social justice in their future professions. Community service is a big part of Catholicism and Catholic colleges and universities do a fantastic job of providing volunteer opportunities.

Some of the "secular" advantages of Catholic schools include smaller class sizes, a greater focus on students' individual needs, and faculty and staff that do a great job of preparing their students for careers and graduate schools. While founded in the Catholic faith, these schools are very welcoming to students of all religions and backgrounds, as well as those with no current religious affiliation.

Farmers' Market Nutrition Program Set

The Nebraska Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) provides low-income senior citizens with coupons to purchase fresh produce or honey (pure only) at Nebraska farmers' markets and roadside stands.

The purposes of the program are to provide fresh, nutritious, unprepared, locally grown fruits, vegetables, herbs and honey to low-income seniors and increase the consumption of agricultural commodities by expanding or aiding in the development of new farmers' markets and roadside stands. Nebraska's SFMNP State Plan of Operations was officially approved early in the year, allowing the state to continue the operation of this program for 2015.

In order for the participants to be eligible for the program, individuals must meet categorical and income eligibility requirements. Categorically, participants must be 60 years of age or older. Income is measured in one of two ways. An individual, single household's gross income cannot exceed $21,589.50; a two-person household's gross income cannot exceed $29,100.50. Older adults wanting to be considered for the program may be asked to provide documentation showing age and income eligibility at the time of registration.

Older adults enrolled in the program will receive SFMNP coupons, which they will be able to exchange for fresh, nutritious, unprepared, locally grown fruits, vegetables, herbs and/or honey at registered farmers markets and roadside stands. Coupon distribution will start in June and may run through September. Coupons must be spent on or before Oct. 31, 2015. Coupons will be available through participating Area Agencies on Aging, local senior centers, and local Commodity Supplemental Food Programs' distribution sites.

Because appropriations are limited, services will not be provided in every community, and not all eligible seniors may be served. If additional funding appears likely, waiting lists may be used.

Special Election Slated For Vermillion June 30

VERMILLION — The Vermillion Area Chamber and Development Company Board of Directors are encouraging Vermillion voters to take advantage of the opportunity for their voices to be heard and vote on June 30 in the Special Election. Voting will take place at the National Guard Armory/Community Center from 7 a.m.-7 p.m. on June 30.

Board President Jim Brady says, www "The Board of Directors recognizes the importance of this election, especially the opportunity for each and every resident in Vermillion to have and voice their opinion. We understand the two issues on the ballot could be a little confusing because of the 'yes' or 'no' options and which each of them mean. So we want to make sure and do everything we can to have everyone educated on the issues and what a 'yes' or 'no' vote will translate to mean." This is a simplified explanation of those choices.

1. Malt beverage 5 percent markup fee on the wholesale cost to help pay for a portion of city bond debt (Prentis Park Improvements Project). The bond issue was overwhelmingly voted for by Vermillion voters in Nov. 2014.

a. YES vote = Repeal the ordinance and do not generate funding support for the bond/Prentis Park Project.

b. NO vote = Keep the ordinance as adopted by City Council and collect the 5 percent markup on malt beverages to help support the bond/Prentis Park Project

2. Day-care regulations in Vermillion. (Registration, safety requirements, building & fire codes, not listed on the sex offender registry.)

a. YES vote = Adopt the ordinance passed by City Council.

b. NO vote = Do not adopt the ordinance.

The VCDC Legislative Affairs Committee is sponsoring an open forum at the Vermillion City Hall, Council Chambers, on Tuesday, June 23, from 6-8 p.m. The forum is open and encouraging to the public to attend. The purpose of this forum is to provide the public an opportunity to ask questions to advocates representing both sides of opinion regarding these two ballot topics, and to clarify any mistaken facts involved with each issue. The forum will also be televised on local Channel 3.

You can also go to Vermillion's web page www.vermillion.us to find a link that will provide factual information about both issues; OR, anyone interested in the text of these issues can go to the City Finance Office for a sample ballot. Absentee voting is currently open and can be done any time during business hours at City Hall leading up to June 30.
