MIDWEST DIGEST

Court Upholds Assault Sentence

SIOUX FALLS (AP) — A federal appeals court on a second review has upheld the 15-year prison sentence given a woman for assaulting two men with a barbecue fork at Fort Thompson.

Forty-eight-year-old Tamara Azure, who prefers to use the name Tamera Wind, pleaded guilty four years ago to two counts of assault with a dangerous weapon. As part of a plea agreement, federal prosecutors dismissed a murder charge filed for a separate incident.

After Wind appealed the sentence, the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ordered the judge to reconsider. He again imposed a 15-year sentence based on her history and facts surrounding the dismissed murder charge.

On a second appeal, the appellate court upheld the sentence.

Man In Prison For Fondling Students

SIOUX FALLS (AP) — A man who authorities say confessed to breaking into homes and groping several Augustana College students will serve time in prison.

Eric Prince was sentenced Thursday to 10 years in state prison for second-degree burglary and seven years for sexual contact with a person incapable of consent. The sentences will run concurrently.

The 41-year-old Prince pleaded guilty in August.

Police say Prince admitted to breaking into 10 homes and fondling or performing oral sex on male students at eight of those residences. The victims were drunk.

Flood Watch Issued For Central S.D.

SIOUX FALLS (AP) — The spring flooding season is under way in South Dakota, with a flood watch being posted for a portion of the central part of the state.

The National Weather Service says that with snowmelt runoff and possible rain there is a significant risk of ice jam flooding on the White River from Belvidere to Oacoma, where the river flows into the Missouri.

The flood watch for Jones and Lyman counties is in effect through Sunday morning.

S.D. Not A 'Race To The Top' Finalist

SIOUX FALLS (AP) — South Dakota is not one of the 16 finalists for a federal grant that would have helped the state build a residential school designed to improve academic achievement among American Indian students.

U.S. Education Secretary Arne Duncan encouraged states that didn't make the cut to reapply for Phase 2 of Race to the Top, a U.S. Department of Education program aimed at encouraging and rewarding states that help improve student success.

Under South Dakota's proposal, partners would have established a year-round, residential school — likely in the Black Hills — for grades 9-12 and two years of postsecondary education.

Curriculum would have focused on science, technology, engineering and math to address the nation's need for scientists and engineers.

Vehicles Stolen From Sioux Falls Lot

SIOUX FALLS (AP) — Authorities say thieves used a vehicle to ram through the gate at a vehicle storage lot in Sioux Falls.

They stole five vehicles from the lot used by Wheel City Auto Sales and Credit. The heist happened about 2 a.m. Thursday.

City police and the Highway Patrol later found four of the stolen vehicles abandoned. Authorities are still looking for a black Jeep Cherokee.
