AREA MOVIES

Opinions are by reviewers from Philadelphia Inquirer, the Los Angeles Times and The Associated Press. Ratings by the Motion Picture Association of America are: (G) for general audiences; (PG) parental guidance urged because of material possibly unsuitable for children; (PG-13) parents are strongly cautioned to give guidance for attendance of children younger than 13; (R) restricted, younger than 17 admitted only with parent or adult guardian; (NC-17) no one younger than 17 admitted. RATINGS: 4 stars: Excellent; 3 stars: Good; 2 stars: Fair; 1 star: Poor. NOTE: Y — playing in Yankton; Ve — playing in Vermillion; T — playing in Tripp; V — playing in Viborg.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND (Y) ★★ Tim Burton's inspired new big-screen take on Lewis Carroll's fantasy stars Mia Wasikowska in the title role, with Johnny Depp as the Mad Hatter. 1 hr. 48 PG (action violence, hookah-smoking caterpillar, suitable for those eight and older)

THE BLIND SIDE (Ve) ★★1/2.

Sandra Bullock stars as a Southern woman who takes a destitute teen into her home. Based on a true story, it's part sports saga, all tear-jerker. 2 hrs. 08. PG-13 (violence; drug and sex references)

COP OUT (Y-Ve) ★★ Bruce Willis, Tracy Morgan and a host of supporting actors labor through this derivative buddy-cop comedy set in Brooklyn. Nonstop high jinks. Not too many laughs. 1 hr. 50 R (pervasive profanity, violence, sexual content)

GREEN ZONE (Y) ★★ All the war-zone authenticity in the Arab world cannot salvage the silly Hollywood plot at the heart of Matt Damon and Paul Greengrass' first collaboration outside the Jason Bourne realm. Their thriller about the futile search for weapons of mass destruction in Iraq is a visual and visceral knockout utterly deflated by a story as unappetizing as Army field rations. Damon's an Army guy hurled into a simple-minded conspiracy concocted by the filmmakers to explain why the WMD hunt keeps coming up empty. The cast, including Greg Kinnear, Amy Ryan, Brendan Gleeson and Jason Isaacs, generally delivers serviceable performances in roles that do not call for much more. As Damon's translator and tipster, Khalid Abdalla does capture a sense of Iraqis' conflicted emotions over the U.S. occupation. For pure ambiance, the movie is a marvel. Greengrass, who directed Damon in "The Bourne Ultimatum" and "The Bourne Supremacy," applies a similar docudrama style to create a you-are-there sense of Baghdad in chaos. R for violence and language. Running time: 114 minutes.

THE PRINCESS AND THE FROG (Ve) ★★ The Walt Disney Co. gets back to old-school, pen-and-ink animation with this 2-D (and proud of it) cartoon inspired by the classic fairy tale transplanted to Jazz-Age New Orleans and boasting the first African-American heroine in Disney animation history. Directed by "The Little Mermaid" team of Ron Clements and John Musker. G

SHE'S OUT OF MY LEAGUE (Y) ★★ Remember the hoo-ha over whether Seth Rogen and Katherine Heigl made a believable couple in "Knocked Up"? The makers of "She's Out of My League" sure do. They've built an entire comedy from the premise, pairing string-bean Jay Baruchel with gorgeous newcomer Alice Eve and surrounding them with a chorus of Doubling Thomas friends who tell them their relationship can never work. The central idea, vaguely lurking around the edges of the movie's gross-out humor and then spelled out at the end, is pure wish-fulfillment. Nerds and babes can hook up (really), just so long as the geek possesses a good heart and healthy self-esteem. One problem. The filmmakers forgot to give Baruchel's yammering, stammering airport security worker an actual personality that might appeal to the opposite sex. Say what you want about the professional prospects of Rogen's weed-loving loafer in "Knocked Up," you have to admit the dude made you laugh. And, from what we've heard, women do like a sense of humor. R for language and sexual content. 107 minutes.

TO SAVE A LIFE (Vi) No review available.

VALENTINE'S DAY (T) ★★ Garry Marshall's all-star sampler, concocted in the mold of "Love, Actually" and starring Ashton Kutcher, Jennifer Garner, Jamie Foxx, Anne Hathaway, Taylor Swift and George Lopez as the Angelinos whose romantic destinies converge, diverge and cloverleaf like the LA interstates. 2 hrs. PG-13 (risque language, sexual candor)
