Horizons Committee Hosting Celebration March 21

VOLIN — The Volin-Gayville Horizons Steering Committee will host a celebration on Sunday, March 21, to commemorate the successful completion of the process to receive the Horizons grant. The celebration will take place in the Volin City Hall.
 The celebration will start with a free dance workshop from 4:50-5:30 p.m. taught by Sandi VanderWal and the Yankton County Drifters. They will be teaching the Electric Side, Silver Wings and 16-step. The workshop will be followed by a free supper and a dance with The Outback Band.
 There will be various booths to display projects that are being worked on in the community to improve our community and address issues of poverty in our community. Some of these projects include developing a local food bank and addressing hunger in the community, improving communications within our community, providing culture and recreation for children within the community through classes and transportation.
 Questions can be directed to Julie at 605-661-8766 or Missy at 267-2217.

This meeting is free and open to the public, and refreshments will be available.
 The town hall meeting is sponsored by the Coalition for a Drug-Free Yankton, Lewis & Clark Behavioral Health Services, Inc. and the Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration.
 For information, call Tracy Taylor at 665-4606.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, March 13, 1935
 • Sioux Falls' packing house strike, which has kept nearly 1,500 men idle since Saturday, ended today in an agreement growing out of a conference called by a representative of Gov. Tom Berry.
 • In line with State's Attorney John E. Walsh's declaration yesterday against alleged wide-open gambling and lawlessness in Yankton, local law enforcement officers today were warning all alleged offenders. No arrests have yet been made.

25 YEARS AGO
Wednesday, March 13, 1985
 • Funeral services were held for John Chandler "Chan" Gurney Tuesday at the United Church of Christ (Congregational) in Yankton. He was 88. Gurney is most remembered for his work as a young and talented announcer on a new radio station in 1925 called WNAX, and for his service as a congressman.
 • A Yankton Senior High School student, Teresa Spence, was crowned Viborg Pork Queen during banquet activities Tuesday evening at the 1985 South Dakota Pork Show of Viborg.

CORRECTION

In Thursday's "Our Towns" article on Gaville Hall, the name of the Tyndall artist whose work is displayed in the hall was incorrectly spelled. Her name is April Gawboy.

DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
