AREA MOVIES

Opinions are by reviewers from Philadelphia Inquirer, the Los Angeles Times and The Associated Press. Ratings by the Motion Picture Association of America are: (G) for general audiences; (PG) parental guidance urged because of material possibly unsuitable for children; (PG-13) parents are strongly cautioned to give guidance for attendance of children younger than 13; (R) restricted, younger than 17 admitted only with parent or adult guardian; (NC-17) no one younger than 17 admitted. RATINGS: 4 stars: Excellent; 3 stars: Good; 2 stars: Fair; 1 star: Poor. NOTE: Y — playing in Yankton; Ve — playing in Vermillion; T — playing in Tripp; Vi — playing in Viborg.

ALICE IN WONDERLAND (Y) ★★★
Tim Burton's inspired new big-screen take on Lewis Carroll's fantasy stars Mia Wasikowska in the title role, with Johnny Depp as the Mad Hatter. 1 hr. 48 PG (action violence, hookah-smoking caterpillar, suitable for those eight and older)

THE BOUNTY HUNTER (Y-Ve) ★1/2
In this rarely humorous, action-laden romantic-comedy by director Andy Tennant ("Hitch"), Gerard Butler, the buff, smiling Scottish star of "300" and "The Ugly Truth," plays Milo Boyd, a former cop turned bounty hunter who gets the job of his life: the opportunity to drag his ex-wife (Jennifer Aniston) to jail. Aniston, somewhat incredibly, is a hard-nosed crime reporter for the New York Daily News. While tenaciously pursuing a lead on a suspicious murder, Hurley misses a court appearance for a car accident, and the judge issues a warrant for her arrest. But neither actor is playing a character as much as they're playing movie stars. You're always fully aware that you're watching Jennifer Aniston and Gerard Butler — and perhaps that's the idea. For better and worse, "The Bounty Hunter" is merely an opportunity to sit in the dark with these two likable, attractive stars, rather than piece together distorted glimpses of them in the tabloids. PG-13 for sexual content including suggestive comments, language and some violence. 110 minutes.

CRAZY HEART (Ve) ★★
Jeff Bridges delivers an Oscar-worthy — no, Oscar-required — performance as a whiskey-soaked one-time country legend trying to put his life back together in this sublime American indie. Maggie Gyllenhaal, Robert Duvall and an uncredited Colin Farrell all offer up memorable turns. A low-key, down-home gem. 1 hr. 51 R (profanity, alcohol abuse, adult themes)

DEAR JOHN (T) ★★
Moist, star-crossed romance from the Nicholas Sparks novel. It features the attractive and sensitive Amanda Seyfried and Channing Tatum as young lovers separated by war and duty. Lasse Hallstrom's movie opens promisingly, but fails to build, as though focused on the wrong end of the hourglass. 1 hr. 45 PG-13 (sensuality, battle scenes)

DIARY OF A WIMPY KID (Y-Ve) ★★1/2
The film adaptation of Jeff Kinney's wildly successful cartoon novel series manages to put flesh and bone on the books' stick figures without altering the series' mildly subversive comic tone. That fidelity plays mostly for the good, though the books' moron-plagued, middle-school protagonist — sixth-grader Greg (Zachary Gordon), who, let's be honest, comes off as kind of self-absorbed, lazy and petty — loses some of his appeal when viewed under the harsh light of the camera. What's funny on the page is less sympathetic on the screen, meaning the wimpy kid who's going to win the hearts and minds of most moviegoers is not the title character, but his best buddy, supernerd Rowley (Robert Capron). While Greg tries various "rackets" to win popularity, Rowley remains true to his own passions. He's the hero, while Greg is kind of a wet blanket. PG for some nude humor and language. 91 minutes.

GREEN ZONE (Y) ★★1/2
Matt Damon brings his Bourne gravitas (and box office) to this frenetic Iraq war movie, set shortly after the 2003 invasion, starring as an intrepid Army officer on the hunt for WMDs — and sorely disillusioned as he discovers all his intel is bad. 1 hr. 55 R (violence, profanity, adult themes)

SHE'S OUT OF MY LEAGUE (Y) ★★1/2
Why would a babe fall for a dweeb? In this cheerfully vulgar (but with a heart) sex comedy, Jay Baruchel and Alice Eve are proof of the proposition that people are more than their looks. 1 hr. 44 R (sexual candor, extreme profanity, risqué humor)
