AREA DIGEST

USD's Johnson Earns Great West Honors

NAPERVILLE, Ill. — University of South Dakota junior Mel Johnson has been named the Great West Conference Pitcher of the Week in softball, the league announced on Thursday.

Johnson had a solid week during the Coyotes' final six games on their Florida trip. Johnson finished 2-1 last week with a 1.83 ERA in 23 innings pitched. She struck out 17 batters and allowed just six earned runs while holding opposing batters to a .174 batting average. For the season, Johnson leads USD in wins (3), innings pitched and strikeouts.

The Coyotes went 3-3 during their final six games of their Florida trip.

USD resumes action Saturday at the University of Iowa. The doubleheader begins at 1 p.m. in Iowa City, Iowa.

Hennies Cards Hole-In-One

SUN CITY, Ariz. — Vermillion's Mary Lea Hennies shot a hole-in-one earlier this week while golfing at Pueblo El Mirage golf course in Sun City, Ariz.

The shot was made on Hole No. 12.

SDSU Cross Country Teams Honored

BROOKINGS — The South Dakota State men's and women's cross country teams were honored as NCAA Division I All-Academic teams for the fourth consecutive year by the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association.

The men's team received the honors with a team cumulative GPA of 3.14 and the women with a GPA of 3.62.

The SDSU women's team included Krista Creager (Yankton), Amanda Frohling (Yankton), Nicole Davis (Parker), Anne McCann (Parkston), Danielle McCann (Parkston), Emily Smith (Yankton), Kristin Sternhagen (Yankton), Ashley Storm (Yankton) and Joni Strom (Beresford).

The SDSU men's team included Jared Ailts (Yankton) and Brad Anderson (Yankton).

A team must compete and compile a team score at an NCAA Regional Championship as well as have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 to be considered for the USTFCCCA All-Academic Team award.

Jackrabbit Rally Sunday In Norman

The South Dakota State University Alumni Association invites Jackrabbit fans to attend a pre-game rally Sunday afternoon before the women's basketball team takes on Oklahoma in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The rally is planned to run from 5 to 7:30 p.m. at Coach's Restaurant, 102 W. Main Street in Norman. Tipoff between the 14th-seeded Jackrabbits and third-seeded Oklahoma is set for 8:30 p.m. at Lloyd Noble Center on the University of Oklahoma campus.

Fans are encouraged to RSVP by March 19 by calling 1-888-735-2257 or by registering online at statealum.com.

In addition, Foreman Charters and Brookings Radio are teaming up to provide fan buses to the NCAA Tournament. For more information, contact Terri or Sherry at (605) 336-3339.

For more information, call the Easton Archery Center at 605-260-9279.

Girls' Soccer Club Team Tryouts Sunday

There will be a tryout for the U-16 Breeze and U-19 Renegades girls' club soccer teams from 2-4 p.m. on Sunday, March 21, at the Yankton City Hall Gym.

Any girl wishing to participate must be registered with Yankton Youth Soccer before participating this summer. For more information, contact Jen Kirchner, 660-4731 or Ryan Newman, 660-8993.

Coed Softball Leagues Forming

The Yankton Department of Parks and Recreation is now accepting registrations for its 2010 adult coed softball league.

Team registrations, rosters and fees are due May 14. League play is scheduled to begin Sunday, June 6.

Team registration forms and rules are available at the Summit Activities Center at 1801 Summit Street or on the City of Yankton web site at www.cityofyankton.org.

For further information, call (605) 668-5234 or stop by the SAC.

SDSU Wins Summit League 'Food Fight' Title

ELMHURST, Ill. — South Dakota State University claimed The Summit League's 2009-10 "Food Fight" title by raising nearly 6,900 pounds of food in the second year of the league-wide food drive.

The Summit League designated 20 "Food Fight" games during the basketball season as part of an initiative tied in with Students Team Up To Fight Hunger (STUFH) and raised a combined equivalent of over 20,000 lbs. among the 10 competing member institutions.

SDSU's final total was 6,894 lbs. and went to the Brookings Food Pantry. SDSU's SAAC President Jordan Paula initiated involvement from local elementary schools to assist in the food drive.

Overall, the 20,492.59 lbs. collected by Summit League members was more than 5,700 lbs. more than the combined 2009 total.
