2010 Legal and Public Notices
South Dakota law provides that upon the filing of a Complaint for divorce or separate maintenance and upon personal service of the Complaint and Summons on the Defendant, a Temporary Restraining Order shall be in effect against both parties until the final Decree is entered, the Complaint is dismissed, or until further Order of the Court. Either party may apply to the Court for further temporary orders or modifications or revocation of the Order.

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER BY ORDER OF COURT, YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE ARE:
A. Restrained from transferring, encumbering, concealing or in any way dissipating or disposing of any marital assets, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the Court, except as may be necessary in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life. You are to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the Court for all extraordinary expenditures made after the Temporary Restraining Order is in effect;
B. Restrained from molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party.

Dated at Yankton, South Dakota on this 10th day of December, 2009.
