

Photos from top: The Bodens completely tore off the roof and rafters of the house during the remodeling process.

The house took on a new shape after the major remodeling.

The kitchen is now large, open and inviting.

Simple and sentimental furnishings in the living room make a cozy place for the family to relax. The bathroom counter features an inlay rose pattern on the corners. The skylight in the bathroom is an energy-efficient way to bring light into the bathroom.