DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
 Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 661-9494, or 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY
 The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ACCIDENTS
 • A report was received at 4 p.m. Saturday that a pickup had run into a light pole at Lewis and Clark Ford in the 300 block of Capital St. The pole had become unstable, and the business was advised to move vehicles away from it until it could be repaired.
 • A report was received at 9:31 p.m. Saturday that a male driving a 2001 Dodge Dakota collided with a female driving a 1993 Ford Escort in the 1500 block of Douglas. The male was cited for a stop sign violation.
 • A report was received at 1:04 a.m. Sunday of an accident in the Mount Marty College parking lot.
 • A report was received at 8:14 p.m. Sunday that a 2002 Chevrolet Cavalier driven by a 16-year-old Yankton female collided with the east side of the Discovery Bridge on Riverside Drive. Estimated value of the damage to the vehicle was $5,950, while the bridge appeared unharmed. The female, and a 16-year-old Yankton male passenger, were taken to the emergency room. The driver was cited for careless driving. Both of the teens were charged with ingestion of an inhalant.

arrested Sunday for driving under the influence.
INCIDENTS
 • A report was received at 3:59 p.m. Friday of a gas drive-off valued at $43.
 • A report was received at 7:20 p.m. Friday that a group of kids were verbally harassing the complainant's child. The kids were advised not to yell at other children. Also, the complainant was advised not to threaten to "whoop" the children and their mother.
 • A man reported at 7:34 p.m. Friday that a juvenile female had slapped him while he was working at a local restaurant. The man was advised not to return to the restaurant or he would be arrested for trespassing.
 • A report was received at 2:39 a.m. Saturday that the side mirrors on a vehicle had been broken off while parked in the 100 block of East Third St.
