

A sea of hands surrounds the basketball during a sixth grade girls' blue division game between Vermillion and the B-E Huskies at Yankton Middle School. (Cimburek)

LEFT: The Pink Panthers and Bombers tip off their sixth grade girls' red division game at Yankton Middle School. (Cimburek)

BELOW: A Yankton Roadrunner player, left, and an EPJ Huskies player share a light moment during a free throw attempt during their Roger Haas Tournament seventh grade boys' game Friday night at Cimpr Arena. (Hoeck)

RIGHT: Grant Cammock (left) and Freddie Ortiz of Yankton Fejfar Plumbing go for a loose ball during eighth grade boys blue division action against Crofton at the Summit Activities Center. (Hertz)

ABOVE: Scotland's Tanner Van Driel dives on a loose ball to protect it from Yankton Murdo's players during their sixth grade boys' basketball game at Yankton Middle School. (Cimburek)
BELOW: Three Howard reserves discuss strategy during their seventh grade girls' game against Yankton Somsen Agency on Friday night at Cimpr Arena. (Hoeck)

ABOVE: Pink Panthers' Lauren Norrid lines up a free throw attempt during a sixth grade girls' red division game at Yankton Middle School. (Cimburek)
RIGHT: Menno's Andrew Schaeffer has his shot blocked by Santee's Joe Quintana during eighth grade boys blue division action Friday night. Quintana was called for a foul on the play. (Hertz)

RIGHT: Lennox's Callie Luke, 23, keeps Allie Rosener in front of her during their sixth grade girls' red division game at Yankton Middle School. (Cimburek)

Thank You To These Participating Sponsors

Olson's Pest Technicians
Brunick Furniture & Flooring
Battery Exchange LLC
Broadway Inn
Eisenbraun & Associates
Fryn' Pan Family Restaurant
Gramps

Hair And Beyond
Hy-Vee
JB Auto Body
KFC Taco Bell
Kolberg-Pioneer Inc.
Leader Concrete
Construction Inc.

Mexico Viejo
Minervas Grill & Bar
Modern Woodmen of America-
Cathy Lynch
Pizza Ranch
Premium Best Transport
PROBuild

Sign Tech
Walmart
Charlie's Pizza House
Yankton Daily
Press & Dakotan
Missouri Valley Shopper