LCTC To Hold Auditions Of 'Wicked Witch'

The Lewis and Clark Theatre Company has announced the try-out dates for the upcoming 51st season-opening production of "The Wicked Witch Of Oz."

Tryouts are scheduled for 7 p.m. Monday, April 9, and Tuesday, April 10, at the Dakota Theater located at 328 Walnut Street. If unable to make these two dates, special auditions can be arranged by calling director Tara Gill at 660-7567.

Show dates for the "Wicked Witch of Oz" are June 13-18.

Note that for the 51st season LCTC is adjusting their show dates in order to make it easier for a wide variety of people to participate. Non-musical productions will run one week with six performances from Wednesday-Monday.

"The Wicked Witch of Oz" is set in a small high school theatre production of the "Wizard of Oz." Hecuba, the wicked witch of Oz, and her flying monkey, Nikko, suddenly appear and quickly realize they aren't in Oz anymore. Desperate to return to Oz, Hecubah and Nikko try to convince the ultimate diva, Dorothy, to surrender her ruby slippers. When she refuses, Hecubah wrecks havoc on the set. This is a fun, fast-paced non-musical show that you will want to be involved with.

The cast of "The Wicked Witch of Oz" calls for four males, 11 females and one flexible role. Ages range from youth-adult. Roles include Hecuba (teen-adult), Nikko (flexible), Glinda Gladstone (teen), Buffy Dahl (teen), Sissy Stockwell (teen), Trish Cameron (teen), Jeff Barrett (teen), Todd Finster (teen), Desmond Trout (youth), Ophelia Trout (youth), Archie Archer (teen), Lindsay Zimmerman (teen), Ellen Pixley (adult), Mathilda Baum (adult), Ollie Trout (adult) and Mirabelle Gladstone (adult).

If you have any questions, contact LCTC at 605-665-4711.
