South Dakota Supreme Court Set For March Term At USD

VERMILLION — Beginning Monday, March 18, the South Dakota Supreme Court will be in session for three days at the University of South Dakota School of Law. The justices will hear several oral arguments during the March 2013 Term of Court at the law school courtroom, including three oral arguments on Monday, March 18: State of South Dakota vs. Briley W. Piper, 9 a.m., Russell Englund and Mary Englund vs. Paul Vital, 10 a.m., and State of South Dakota vs. James Duane Riley, 11 a.m.

Oral arguments scheduled for Tuesday, March 19 include: In the Matter of the Termination of Parental Right, 9 a.m.; and State of South Dakota vs. Gabriel Darryn Medicine, 10 a.m. Oral arguments for Wednesday, March 20 are Ronald Voeller vs. HSBC Card Services, Inc., at 9 a.m.; State of South Dakota vs. Brian Dennis Amick at 10 a.m.; In the Matter of the Estate of Eugene Shipman, deceased, 11 a.m.

Chief Justice David Gilbertson (USD School of Law, '75) and Justices John Konenkamp ('74), Steven Zinter ('75), Glen Severson ('75) and Lori Wilbur ('77) will hear the three cases each morning with afternoon sessions reserved for written appellate briefs. Case synopses will also be available each morning for the public. The Supreme Court will also review 10 non-oral arguments during the March session.

A complete schedule and summaries of the cases are available at www.usd.edu/law/sdsc.cfm.

"The Supreme Court's March Term of Court is always a unique opportunity for our law school students and the campus community to see the state's judicial process at its highest level," stated Thomas Geu, dean of the School of Law. "It's also a 'welcome home' for all five members of the South Dakota Supreme Court who are graduates of the USD School of Law."

The South Dakota Supreme Court employs security methods to insure the well-being of all who attend its proceedings. All people attending the morning arguments will need to enter through the Law School building's southeast door. Book bags, backpacks, and other packages are subject to search and people are encouraged not to bring them to keep the entrance process smooth and without delays. Individuals requiring assistance should contact the State Court Administrator's Office at (605) 773-3474 at least 48 hours before the session to make any arrangements.

Interchange And Chamber To Host School Board Candidate Forum

Yankton Interchange and the Yankton Area Chamber of Commerce have joined forces to sponsor a forum for Yankton School District Board candidates on Monday, March 18, at Minervas, 1607 E. Highway 50.

The forum will begin at noon following lunch at 11:45 a.m. Doors will open at 11:30 a.m. Lunch is optional.

The forum will give attendees an opportunity to meet and question the four candidates running for the two openings on the Yankton School Board. Candidates appearing will be Duane "Butch" Becker, Sarah Carda, Jim Fitzgerald and Wayne Wurth.

An RSVP is requested due to limited seating at www.yanktonsd.com/candidate.

Missouri River Cyclists Ride This Saturday

The Missouri River Cyclists group will begin its annual St. Patrick's Day ride at 2 p.m. Saturday, March 16, from the Cottonwood Corral west of Yankton along Highway 52.

The route will include the Meridian Bridge, and stops at the Ice House, The Landing and Ben's, before ending up back at the Cottonwood Corral.

A drawing for gifts will be held for participants at the end of the ride. A bus will accompany the riders to provide support services.

Ava Johnson Fund Set Up In Vermillion

AVON — The Avon Volunteer Fire Department has set up a special account for 3-year-old Ava Johnson, daughter of Mark and Samantha Johnson, Avon.

GFWC Fashion Show Set For Saturday

General Federation of Women's Club of Yankton (GFWC) is sponsoring its second annual "Spring into Fashion Style Show" on Saturday, March 23, at The Center, 900 Whiting Drive, Yankton.

The group is serving a Salad/Dessert luncheon that begins at 11:30 a.m. Fashions will begin at 12:30 p.m. Fashions will be by Christopher Banks, JC Penney, Linda's Angel Crossing, Lisa's Fashions, Lulu's, Maurice's, Riverside Boutique and the Edge.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs is an international women's organization dedicated to community improvement by enhancing the lives of others through volunteer service. GFWC members work in their own communities to support the arts, preserve natural resources, advance education, promote healthy lifestyles, encourage civic involvement, and work toward world peace and understanding. The Yankton group donated more than 21,000 volunteer hours last year in Yankton, collected food for the Contact Center several times throughout the year, items for the Women's Shelter, shipped care packages to soldiers overseas, donations to Boys & Girls Club, The Center, Public Library, etc.

All proceeds from the style show are donated back to the community.

For tickets, contact Julie Clifton at 665-6065 or Pauline Akland at 660-5549.

ON THIS DATE

75 YEARS AGO

Monday, March 14, 1938

• Most of the soil conservation compliance checks, which have been expected here for Yankton county farmers for some time and have been the cause of much inquiry at the soil conservation office, finally arrived late Saturday in the midst of other rush business in the office.

• Scottish Rite Masons of South Dakota and other points will be in Yankton this week in attendance at a Golden Jubilee reunion of Oriental Consistory. The sessions, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the organization, chartered with 25 members in 1888, will open tonight with the conferring of the 4th, 5th, and 14th degrees.

50 YEARS AGO

Thursday, March 14, 1963

• The winning exhibit at the 1963 Chamber of Commerce Home Show now drawing to a close at Yankton city auditorium is the Christopherson flower shop booth featuring frankly fancy fripperies for home decorating.

• Crowds at the city auditorium Home Show Wednesday afternoon and evening gave an enthsiastic reception to the Ink Spots and two specialty acts. Preceded by beautifully costumed juggling and balancing numbers, the famous singing quartet gave a most entertaining performance that appeared to be very well received by the spectators.

25 YEARS AGO

Monday, March 14, 1988

• Developers plan to begin construction this spring on a $750,000 Super 8 Motel financed largely by investors in this town (Wagner) of about 1,500 people.

• Daryl Bernard, a longtime Yankton resident involved in many community activities, received the Yankton Sertoma Club's Service to Mankind award. It is the highest award given by the organization.
