Eide, Waytashek Earn Summit Honors ELMHURST, III. — South Dakota State University's Ashley Eide and Megan Waytashek have been named to the Academic All-Summit

League Women's Basketball Team as voted on by the nine member inn's faculty athletics representatives and sports information di-

Eide and Waytashek were two of the five players selected to the elite honor squad, and were joined by Omaha's Paige Frauendorfer, Fort Wayne's Amanda Hyde and Kansas City's Eilise O'Connor. All five honorees were also members of the all-Summit League First Team for their efforts on the playing floor. In addition, Eide (second team), Hyde (second team) and Frauendorfer (third team) were selected as Capital One Academic All-Americans earlier this season.

while majoring in health, physical education and recreation. She currently leads the Jackrabbits with an average of 13.9 points per game, while also averaging 3.8 rebounds and 2.4 assists. Waytashek, a sophomore from Lino Lakes, Minn., has posted a 3.96 GPA as a mechanical engineering major. She ranks second on the

SDSU Puts Two On Men's Academic All-League Team

ELMHURST, III. — Summit League champion South Dakota State had two players selected to the five-member Summit League Academic All-League Team for men's basketball, as voted by the Faculty Athletic Representatives and Sports Information Directors of the league's nine member institutions. Student-athletes were chosen for the honor based on their academic and athletic performances this season.

Tournament champion South Dakota State led the way with two selections in guard Brayden Carlson and forward Jordan Dykstra. Joinand Omaha's John Karhoff. Carlson, Dykstra and Karhoff each earned Capital One Academic

All-District selections in February. Bader (1st team) and Dykstra (2nd team) were named All-Summit League. Carlson, who has a 3.924 GPA in business economics, started all 34 games to date for South Dakota State. He is averaging 8.7 points per game and ranks third on the team with 1.4 three-pointers per contest. In an early season game against Marshall, Carlson scored a ca 23 points and equaled his career-best with five three-pointers. Dykstra, with a 3.68 GPA in biology/pre-dentistry, ranks third in The Summit League in both rebounding (7.9 rpg) and three-point field goal percentage (.430). He has started all 34 games for the Jackrabbits and ranks second on the team with 12.5 points per game.

To be eligible for the Academic All-League team, a student-athlete must have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.30 (on a 4.0 scale), completed at least one full academic year at the current instirution and participated in 50 percent of their team's competitions.
