Middleton

Middleton Joins USD Football Staff

VERMILLION — Former Ottawa University standout Matthew Middleton is University of South Dakota's new wide receivers coach. Head coach Joe Glenn made the announcement Wednesday and the hire is effective immediately. Middleton replaces Kelton Copeland who is now the running backs coach at Northern Illinois University.

Middleton most recently was a graduate assistant working with the wide receivers at the University of Kansas in Lawrence where he spent the 2012 season. He coached the wideouts and return men as a volunteer assistant at Chadron State College (NCAA Div. II) during the 2011 campaign. Middleton coached receivers and kick returners at University of Nebraska-Omaha from 2009-10 and earned his master's degree there in recreation management in 2012.

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Middleton was a four-year starter at Ottawa from 2004-07. He was a three-time all-conference wideout who graduated as the program's all-time leader in receptions. After receiving his bachelor's degree in sports and recreational management, Middleton stayed with the Braves for the 2008 season as a part-time assistant.

At Bonner Springs High School, Middleton was a talented three-sport star where he wrestled, played football and competed in track and field. He was named BSHS Male Athlete of the Year as a senior in 2004.

Augustana's McCaffrey Honored

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Augustana's Cameron McCaffrey was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Division II All-America team, the organization announced Wednesday.

McCaffrey, who also earned All-America Third Team honors from Daktronics this season, is one of 16 players in the country to earn NABC All-America honors. The NABC All-America team is voted on by Division II coaches across the country.

The guard from Portland, Ore., was also selected to compete in the 2013 Reese's Division II All-Star Game by the NABC. McCaffrey will compete in the game this Friday at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky.

McCaffrey capped off a stellar collegiate career in 2012-13 by leading the Vikings with 21.3 points and 4.8 assists per game. He also led the team in field goals made (213), field goals attempted (456), 3-point field goals made (54), 3-point field goals attempted (152), free throws made (179), steals (30) and minutes played (34.5 minutes per game).

He led the Vikings in scoring in 28 of 31 games this season and scored 20 or more points in 12 games this season, including 30, 36 and his career-high 40 points against the University of Mary on Jan. 18.

Augustana made its 11th appearance in the NCAA tournament in 2012-13 and finished the season 22-9. The Vikings finished third in the NSIC with a 15-7 mark in the league.

Dakota Duals Moved To Yankton

VERMILLION — The Dakota Duals originally scheduled to be hosted by South Dakota State on April 6 has been moved to Yankton due to snow and ice covering the Brookings High School track.

The snow and ice is not expected to melt in time for the meet. It will now be held at Williams Field in Yankton, with field events starting at 11 a.m. and running events starting at 1 p.m.
