S&D: Hertting Ends Season At NCAA Zone Diving

IOWA CITY, Iowa — South Dakota sophomore Greysen Hertting completed her season on Tuesday at the NCAA Zone Diving Championships hosted by the University of Iowa. Hertting represented South Dakota at one of five diving meets that serve as a qualifier to the NCAA Championships.

The Appleton, Wis., native started off the competition with a 31st-place finish in the three-meter dive on Monday. She recorded a score of 263.35 points. Hertting returned Tuesday to take 48th in the one-meter with a score of 201.70 points. Hertting was the only qualifier in the region from the Summit League.

Texas sophomore Samantha Bromberg captured the top mark in the 3-meter dive with a score of 721.90 points. Bromberg had 359.35 points in the preliminary round. Minnesota's Yu Zhuo had the top mark in the 1meter competition with a score of 645.60 points, with 318.45 points from the preliminary round.

Hertting ends the 2014-15 swimming and diving season with Summit League Diving Championship MVP honors, 27 individual victories, a new school record in the three-meter dive and a trip to the NCAA Zone Diving

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Nevada basketball coach David Carter has been fired after posting losing records four of the last five seasons.

Athletic director Doug Knuth announced the move Wednesday night after Nevada lost to UNLV 67-46 in the first round of the Mountain West Conference tournament to finish the season 9-22. The Wolf Pack were 5-13 in league play.

Knuth said in a statement it's not an easy decision. but he thinks it's time for a change in leadership in the program that failed to post double-digit victories for the
