Firefighters from Crofton and Yankton were summoned to a blaze west of the Weigand area near Gavins Point Dam shortly after noon on Friday. A fire that started in a house on the south side of the road spread to the vegetation and eventually pushed north across the highway due to the wind.

One Injured In Friday House Fire

From P&D Staff Reports

One man was hospitalized after a house fire turned into a grass fire near Crofton Friday afternoon. Shortly after noon, a fire broke out at a housing development near Crofton and quickly spread to a field, according to Yankton deputy fire chief Larry Nickles. An estimate of damages was unavailable. The Yankton Fire Department, Crofton Fire Department, Yankton EMS and Crofton EMS were on scene for about three hours. The homeowner was transported to Avera Sacred Heart Hospital with undisclosed injuries. Conditions in the Yankton area are still prone to fire hazards. The National Weather Service has issued a fire weather watch for Sunday due to warm conditions and strong winds.
