Emergency Solutions Program Grant Funds Available

PIERRE — South Dakota Housing Development Authority (SDHDA) is now accepting applications for the Emergency Solutions Grants Program. The Emergency Solutions Grants Program (ESG) is a federal block grant authorized by Subtitle B of the McKinney Vento Homelessness Assistance Act and is administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. ESG funds are to be used for services to homeless and near homeless individuals and families in these major categories:

- 1) Renovation, major rehabilitation or conversion of building for use as emergency shelter facilities;
- 2) Payment of certain operating expenses related to operating emergency shelter facilities;
- 3) Payment of essential services provided to homeless individuals and families in emergency shelter facilities;

- 4) Payment of street outreach services to assist unsheltered homeless people and connect them to services;
- 5) Payment of rapid re-housing assistance to quickly get homeless individuals and families re-housed into permanent housing;
- 6) Development and implementation of homelessness prevention activities to help those individuals who are about to lose their housing due to eviction; and
- 7) Participating in the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) which is a web-based program designed to capture client level data.

Applicants must be nonprofits or units of local government. The estimated total funding available for 2015 funding year is approximately $400,000 with 60 percent of the total funding available for street outreach and shelter operations activities and 40 percent available for homeless prevention, rapid re-housing, HMIS and administrative activities. While it is difficult to get an absolute account of the homeless, a 2014 survey reported there were more than 885 homeless people in South Dakota with 247 of them children. Single parent families made up 20 percent of the homeless who were surveyed. The ESG Program is one of several sources designated to reduce homelessness throughout the state. The ESG Program application is available on SDHDA's website at www.sdhda.org. For more information on the ESG Program, email Lisa Bondy at lisab@sdhda.org, or call 605-773-3181. Applications must be received by March 31 at 5 p.m. (CST).

Hazard Mitigation Funding Available

PIERRE — The South Dakota Office of Emergency Management is accepting applications for $1.4 million in federal hazard mitigation grant funding. The funding is available as part of a presidential disaster declaration approved for 12 South Dakota counties and one tribal nation last summer. Gov. Daugaard requested the declaration following a week of severe storms, flash flooding and tornadoes that ravaged homes and infrastructure across South Dakota in June 2014. When a presidential disaster is declared, a percentage of the disaster funding is set aside for local governments and certain private non-profit organizations to complete projects that will lessen or eliminate the effects of future disasters on lives and property. "We've had real success with mitigation projects here in South Dakota, particularly with power line burials," Mitigation and Recovery Manager Jason Bauder said. "In the past decade over 1,000 miles of overhead power line have been buried in South Dakota, eliminating the chance of those lines being torn down by future high winds or ice." Other hazard mitigation project examples include purchasing and removing structures from the designated floodplain and building community tornado safe rooms. Applications for mitigation funding will be accepted until April 1, 2015. Local governments or private non-profit organizations interested in finding out more about project eligibility and applications can contact the South Dakota Office of Emergency Management at 605-773-3231.

SDSU Plans Dance Minor Education Day

BROOKINGS — South Dakota State University will be holding an education day about its dance minor April 11 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Performing Arts Center on the SDSU campus. Attendees will meet and work with students in the minor as well as with the university's dance coordinator. In addition, attendees can choose to learn lyrical, contemporary, ballet, jazz and Broadway combinations from works choreographed by students and faculty. The event is open to any high school student. Admission is $25 due at registration. The proposed schedule is:

- 9 a.m. — Registration
- 9:30 a.m. — Welcome/warm-up
- 10 a.m. — Lyrical dance or contemporary ballet
- 10:45 a.m. — Ballet or contemporary dance
- 11:30 a.m. — Jazz or Broadway
- 12:10 p.m. — Lunch (on your own)
- 1 p.m. — Q&A
- 1:30 p.m. — SDSU student showcase
- 2 p.m. — Closing
- 2:15 p.m. — Campus tour (optional)

For more information, contact Melissa Hauschild-Mork, South Dakota State's dance minor coordinator, at Melissa.mork@sdstate.edu or 688-5048. Information is available online, www.sdstate.edu/cst/programs/dance-minor.cfm or on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/sd-sudanceminors>. Interested individuals can register online at www.sd-state.edu/danceday by April 4.

Dept. Of Labor & Regs Releases Mobile-Friendly Job Search Site

PIERRE — The South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation has rolled out a mobile-friendly version of SDWORKS, the state's largest jobs database. The new site provides faster download speeds, portability and connectivity to job seekers. "Creating a website optimized for tablets and smartphones caters to a large portion of our job seekers and offers a more convenient way of searching for work," said state Labor and Regulation Secretary Marcia Hultman. The updated site also features expanded search capabilities which include:

- Geographical range searching — Users can select a zip code and define a

Serve South Dakota Offering Funding

Could national service help meet your organizational goals? All across the state, volunteers and national service participants help to meet compelling community needs every day. Join other organizations that have discovered the power of national service and develop a program to engage a team of AmeriCorps members in service. Serve South Dakota, the South Dakota Commission for National and Community Service, has announced a second release of the 2015-2016 Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO) for AmeriCorps State Formula Funding. Full applications are due April 17, 2015. South Dakota's AmeriCorps State program is a national service program that involves participants (called "members") in providing services to address critical needs in their communities. AmeriCorps grants are awarded to eligible organizations proposing a program to engage AmeriCorps members in evidence-based or evidence-informed interventions to strengthen communities in any of the following focus areas: education, economic opportunity, disaster services, environmental stewardship, healthy futures or veterans and military families. Eligible organizations include: Public or private non-profit organizations, including faith-based and other community organizations; institutions of higher education; government entities within states or territories (e.g. cities, counties); partnerships and consortia and Tribes. For more information on this opportunity and for instructions on how to apply, visit the "Grants Page" on Serve South Dakota's website at www.serveds.org. For more information, contact Serve SD at (605) 659-0035 or info@serveds.org.
