ARTICLE 74:37 - AIR POLLUTION CONTROL PROGRAM FEES NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING TO REVISE RULES. A public hearing will be held in the Matthew Training Center, Joe Foss Building, Pierre, South Dakota, on May 25, 2010, at 10:00 a.m. central daylight time, to consider the proposed revision to Administrative Rules of South Dakota Chapter 74:37:01 - Air Emission Fees. The federal Clean Air Act of 1990 required the development of a national permit program for major sources of air pollution. This permit program is called the Title V air quality permit program. To pay for implementing the permit program, Congress required in the Clean Air Act that air pollution sources subject to the permitting program must pay a fee to cover the reasonable direct and indirect costs associated with administering the program. Under the Clean Air Act, all states had to develop a permit program and a fee structure to pay for implementing the program and be approved by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). If a state decided not to develop a permit program, the EPA would develop and implement its own program for that state and charge the maximum fee allowed under the Clean Air Act. Currently EPA is charging $45.33 per ton of regulated pollutants emitted into the air from each source permitted. To decrease the cost of the program and to provide better customer service to businesses and industry in South Dakota, the South Dakota Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) established a Title V permit program and a fee structure to pay for implementing the program in 1994. In lieu of the maximum fee allowed under the Clean Air Act that would have been charged under an EPA administered program, DENR set the fee at $6.10 per ton of regulated pollutants emitted from permitted sources. The air emission fees were established in Administrative Rules of South Dakota Chapter 74:37:01 - Air Emission Fees on July 1, 1994, and have been in effect since then. Since 1994, the costs to implement the program have increased and the existing fee structure is no longer sufficient to cover the cost of the program. As a result, the EPA requires the fee structure to be revised to be in compliance with the federal Clean Air Act provision requiring the fee to cover the entire cost of the program. The revisions to Chapter 74:37:01 are being proposed to ensure the department maintains sufficient resources to implement the Title V air quality permit program in South Dakota and maintains the state's approval status from EPA. The following is a summary of the proposed changes. 1) Annual administrative fees for sources emitting less than 50 tons per year of pollutants will increase from $100 to $125. For sources emitting more than 50 tons but less than 100 tons, the annual fee will increase from $500 to $600. For sources emitting 100 tons or more of pollution each year, the fee will increase from $1,000 to $1,250. 2) The fee for the actual amount of pollution emitted from each permitted air pollution source will increase from $6.10 per ton to $7.50 per ton. 3) The annual minimum fee paid by any permitted source for items number 1) and 2) above is $250. 4) The application fee for a new permit, renewal of an existing permit, or modifying an existing permit will increase from $100 to $125. 5) The annual fee for rock crushers subject to the Title V permit program will increase from $350 to $400. Rock crushers are not subject to the emissions fee in item 1) and 2) above. 6) The annual fee for asphalt plants subject to the Title V permit program will increase from $250 to $300. Asphalt plants are not subject to the emissions fee in item 1) and 2) above. 7) The annual fee for Otter Tail Power Company's Big Stone 1 coal-fired power plant will be set at $220,000. The Big Stone 1 plant will not be subject to emissions fees in item 1) and 2) above. This flat fee is being proposed to ensure the program has a consistent revenue source from this large source. As emissions change yearly at this plant, revenues to the program change drastically. This will allow a consistent revenue source in the budgeting process. Persons interested in presenting data, opinions, and arguments for or against the proposed amendments may do so by appearing in person at the hearing or by submitting written comments to the person and address noted as follows: Brian Gustafson, Administrator Air Quality South Dakota Department of Environment and Natural Resources 523 East Capitol, Joe Foss Building Pierre, South Dakota 57501 Written comments must be received by close of business on June 4, 2010, to be considered. After the hearing, the Secretary will consider all written and oral comments it receives on the proposed amendments. The Secretary may modify or amend a proposed rule at that time to include or exclude matters that are described in this notice. Please notify the department at least 48 hours before the public hearing if you have a disability for which special arrangements must be made at the hearing. The telephone number for making special arrangements is (605) 773-3151. Copies of the proposed rules may be obtained without charge by calling Lita Magedanz at (605) 773-3151 or from the following website: http://denr.sd.gov/des/aa/airprogr.aspx Steven M.
