Gagne Sends Flyers To Eastern Finals

BOSTON (AP) — Down 3-0 in the series, then down 3-0 in Game 7, it looked as if the Philadelphia Flyers had finally run out of rallies against the Boston Bruins.

Turns out Simon Gagne and his teammates were just warming up.

Taking advantage of a too-many-men-on-the-ice call, Gagne scored on a power play with 7:08 left for a thrilling 4-3 victory Friday night in the Eastern Conference semifinals.

The win set up the most unlikely matchup for a trip to the Stanley Cup final — a seventh-seeded Flyers vs. the eighth-seeded Montreal Canadiens starting Sunday night in Philadelphia.

"If we believe in ourselves and keep going with this, who knows what can happen?" said Scott Hartnell, who scored Philadelphia's second goal.

Flyers coach Peter Laviolette added, "The game 7s are tough. There's a lot of pressure. It's a game that's made for men. And our guys proved to be men."
