

Bring The Family, Enjoy The Rodeo

Cowboy Up!

Do you love fast paced action, flying dust, and mean-tempered bulls and broncs?

Then slip on those boots and dust off your cowboy hat because it is summer and it's time to head to the rodeo.

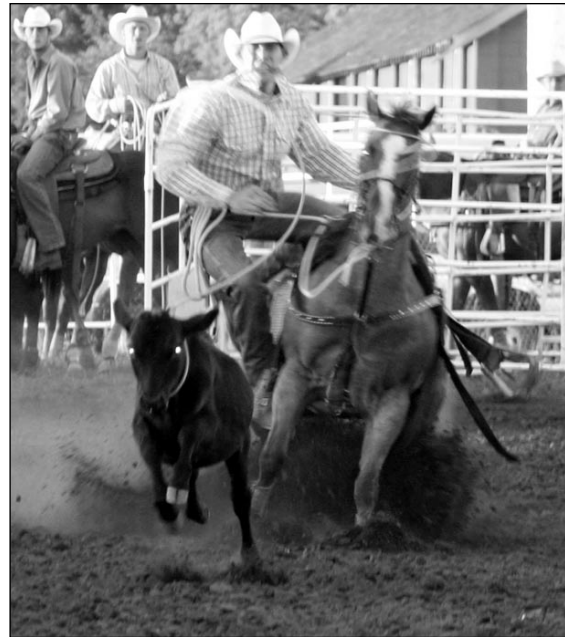

The Yankton Rodeo Association is hosting their 23rd annual PRCA Rodeo during Riverboat Days. The excitement begins at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 20, and Saturday, Aug. 21.

Once again this year, you can count on seeing some of the best cowboys from the area and around the country.

And the stock is always great for the annual Yankton rodeo thanks to Korkow Rodeos.

You won't want to miss the excitement. You won't want to miss the adventure. And you won't want to miss this family-fun event.

The rodeo grounds are located behind the Human Services Center — from Hwy 81, take 50 west and look to your right for the big barns; or take West City Limits Road, head north and watch for the signs. For more information on the rodeo, call Doug and Val Hevle at (605) 665-9231.

Enjoy the Cardboard Boat Race and Water Safety Day

The Yankton Daily Press & Dakotan and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers are sponsoring the Lake Yankton Cardboard Boat Race and Water Safety Festival on Saturday, June 26.

The tentative schedule for the day is as follows:

10 a.m.-3 p.m. — Water Safety Festival
1-2:30 p.m. — Cardboard Boat Registration and Inspection with races following
Water safety activities include mini boat and canoe rides, games, prizes and information. All festival events are free.

Get those creative juices flowing — categories for the cardboard boat races are: Fastest Course Completion; Pride of the Fleet; Most Creative Design; and Titanic: Dramatic Sinking. Registration fee is $25.

Pre-registration is required. All water-based activities require waivers signed by adults. For any questions contact Karla Zeutenhorst at 402-667-2546. Or you can check it out online at www.yankton.net/cardboardboat.
