AREA DIGEST

MMC Inks California Standout For Track, XC

Samuel Lopez of Brawley, California, will attend Mount Marty and run track and cross country for the Lancers, the institution announced Tuesday.

Lopez

Lopez will graduate from Brawley Union High School where he has earned five academic pins, OST patches for English, science and history, CAHSEE stars for English and math, and the American Legion award, and five varsity athletic awards for cross-country and track and field.

His cross-country team accomplishments include being I.V.L. champions for cross country in 2006 and 2008, and I.V.L. champions for track and field in 2010. Individually, he was an All-League track and field athlete in 2006, and an All-League cross country athlete for four consecutive years. He was also named cross country Runner of the Year in 2008, as well as MVP in 2006 and 2008 and Outstanding Runner in 2007 and 2009.

Lopez plans to major in biology and chemistry at MMC. He is the son of Maritza and Exequiel Lopez of Brawley.

SCL: Freeman Tops Crofton 11-8

FREEMAN — Propelled by a grand slam from Jim McNaughton, the Freeman Black Sox defeated Crofton 11-8 in South Central League baseball action Tuesday night in Freeman.

Austin Smith added three hits for Freeman (2-0), which scored nine runs in the second and third inning.

Ryan Vavruska, a former Tabor player, picked up the win for Freeman.

In the loss for the Bluejays (0-2), Nick Hegge singled four times and Aaron Losing had three hits. Hegge took the loss.

Crofton hosts Yankton on Thursday and Freeman hosts Irene on Friday.
