Gayville Hall Celebrates Johnny Cash

GAYVILLE — Gayville Hall presents "A Celebration of Johnny Cash," starring John and Susan McNeill, Nick Schwebach, and Owen DeLong, at 8 p.m. Saturday, May 29, in Gayville.

The quartet first performed the popular show shortly after Cash's death in 2003, drawing the largest crowd to date at Gayville Hall, according to proprietor Doug Sharples. The tribute has been repeated at least once a year ever since with news songs added.

John McNeill, who is the emcee and musical host of Gayville Hall's country music shows, sings Cash's vocals in the tribute, and his wife Susan plays bass and June Carter Cash's duets with the "Man in Black."

Schwebach plays lead guitar and DeLong fiddle. They are members of the band Poker Alice as well as regular stars in Gayville Hall's country music shows.

Gayville Hall is located at 502 Washington Street in Gayville. Call (605)-267-2859 for information.

Park Service Photo Contest Announced

Do you have a favorite photograph that you've taken of the Missouri National Recreational River? How would you like to have your photograph featured on the 2012 Federal Lands pass that is purchased by thousands of people every year?

Beginning June 1-Dec. 31, anyone can submit up to three photographs and be entered to have your photograph featured on the interagency annual Federal Recreational Lands Pass as part of the "Share the Experience" Photo Contest. You will have the opportunity to win national recognition for your photograph and an Olympus digital camera, a trip to a federal recreation area, one of the annual passes and other prizes.

At the end of the photo submission period, the public will be invited to vote for their favorite photo and also be entered to win an Olympus camera each time they vote.

The annual America the Beautiful National Parks and Federal Recreational Lands Interagency Pass is sold at and used for free entrance to all federal public lands and federal fee areas that are managed by the National Park Service, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Bureau of Land Management, and U.S. Forest Service.

For more information or to enter your photographs, visit the contest website at www.sharetheexperience.org. The "Share the Experience" photo contest is being sponsored by Olympus Imaging America, Incorporated and the National Park Foundation, proud partners of the National Park Service and generous supporters of America's special places and treasured landscapes.

ART FORMS

The Sounds Of Summer Are Here!

BY PAM MEYLOE
Yankton Area Arts

Hurray, summer is here! At least for Yankton Area Arts it is anyway — as next Tuesday kicks off our Summer Concert Series at the Riverside Park Amphitheater. The series begins with six performances by the Yankton Area Summer Band organization, followed by six pops concerts and it is shaping up to make for some fantastic evenings down by the river.

The Yankton Area Summer Band was started by local musician Floyd McClain and has been a celebrated summer event for the past twenty-seven years. McClain's involvement was critical in getting the organization off of the ground and he directed the first concert way back in 1983. The concerts were initially performed at Riverside Park but from time to time they were presented at other venues within the Yankton community.

Throughout all these years the Yankton Area Summer Bands have been under the direction of various different conductors. We are pleased to welcome back Todd Carr as the concert coordinator this year — as well as several guest conductors and the all-volunteer band musicians.

The Yankton Area Summer Band concert rehearsals begin at 6:30 p.m. for any volunteer musicians interested in playing and the concert begins promptly at 8 p.m. For late changes due to weather, listen to the radio stations: WNAX, 570 AM; KYNT, 1450 AM or KVHT, 106.3 FM. You can also find more information by visiting the Yankton Area Arts website at www.YanktonAreaArts.org. Any changes to the band's schedule will be made and posted by 4:00 PM.

The Pops Concert Series will feature some of last year's favorite performers — plus we've added several new groups to the lineup. The first concert will be the annual Fourth of July celebration featuring a local favorite, Go Figure. The concerts for the following weeks will include the Hungry Five, Dakota Jazz Collective, Little Chicago Syncopators, Poker Alice, and the South Dakota Jazz Orchestra.

Closing Reception Set For Art House

A closing reception for the artists featured in the USD Photo Show at Yankton's Art House Gallery, will be held at 7-9 p.m. tonight (Friday) at the gallery, located at 110 W. Third St.

Artists and director will be available for questions and conversation. The show contains many works ranging from the traditional silver print to gum dichromate, cyanotypes, photo grams, mixed media, Polaroid processes, book making, and Van Dyke brown.

This event is free and open to the public. Snacks and drinks will be served and is open to all ages.

The gallery is open from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesdays-Saturdays.

The all-volunteer Yankton Area Summer Band is set for its annual summer concert series each Tuesday night at the Riverside Park amphitheatre through early July. The opening concert of the season is 8 p.m. Tuesday.

These are some fantastic artists and are presented in wonderful venue nestled along the Missouri River. I am sure area residents will be extra grateful to have these performances available to them for no charge!

Speaking of the riverfront, I am happy to report that initial reactions to the Yankton RiverWalk sculptures, recently installed in Riverside Park and throughout downtown, range from fantastic to wonderful! The other RiverWalk committee members and I have received numerous compliments and positive comments since the new sculptures were unveiled a couple
