Lancers

ley also drove in runs in the frame.

Northwestern battled back, scoring three runs in the sixth and another in the seventh to pull within five before Schmidt came in to strike out Clint Gingerich with the bases loaded for the final out of the game.

Roche, Jared Miller and Kemp each had two hits for MMC, with Kemp driving in four and Roche driving in three. Jason Livermont, Godsil and Heine added hits in the win.

Steve Englund went 2-3 with four RBI for Northwestern, which finished with a 26-19 record. Gingerich drove in three runs. Mike Shields added a pair of hits for the Raiders, who left 11 runners on.

Dominic Wieseler (5-4) picked up his team-high fifth victory of the season, allowing four runs over 3 1/3 innings.

Earlier in the day at Voss Field in South Sioux City, Neb., second-seeded Doane took advantage of five Mount Marty errors to claim an 11-1 victory over the Lancers.

MMC took a 1-0 lead in the top of the third. Heine drew a leadoff walk, Roche followed with an infield single and Livermont bunted them into scoring position. Schmidt grounded to short to drive in the game's first run, but the Lancers stranded the second runner on the paths.

Doane broke things open in the bottom of the third, an error on a potential inning-ending double play ball with the bases loaded opened the floodgates. By the time the Lancers got out of the inning, they had committed two more errors — both with two outs — had allowed five unearned runs and dug a 6-1 hole.

"I liked the way we started, but once we got into the game, things turned ugly," said Mount Marty head coach Andy Bernatow. "This group has to do a better job of dealing with adversity."

In the fourth, another error and doubles by Anthony Dunn and Thomas Albert led to three more runs. The game ended by 10-run mercy rule in the fifth inning, when an A.J. Spanel single was misplayed by a Lancer fielder and rolled to the fence, allowing the final two runs to score.

"Baseball is a game of failure. How you handle failure is key," Bernatow said. "Does it lead to future success or more failure?"

Michael Albert, Ethan Schroeder and Thomas Albert each had two hits for Doane.

For MMC, Schmidt, Roche, Livermont and Godsil each had hits.

Nathan Roth remained unbeaten for Doane, striking out four in the five-inning contest to improve to 7-0 on the season. Nick Huston took the loss, dropping to 4-5 on the season.
