VERMILLION — South Dakota swimming and diving coach Jason Mahowald announced Thursday the addition of 10 student-athletes for the 2011-12 season. The latest Coyote recruits include eight men's swimmers and two women's swimmers. Joining the Coyote men's team starting this fall include Jon Baker of Waverly, Iowa; Blake Frederick of Lincoln, Neb. Nick Hopson of Gillette, Wyo.; Colin Krysl of Bellevue, Neb.; Christian Nygaard of Circle Pines, Minn.; Ryan Smith of Rapid City; Dakota Soucie of Hastings, Neb., and Jacob Tempesta of Apple Valley, Minn., while Brooke Lang of Gillette, Wyo., and Michyl Miller of Aberdeen will join the Coyote women's team.

MMC Women Sign Mount Vernon's Schmidt

Mount Vernon standout Kelsey Schmidt will enroll at Mount Marty College and play basketball for the Lancer women, the institution announced Thursday.

Schmidt earned second team 2011 Class B All-State honors and was a five-year high school starter. A five-time All-Conference performer, she was named first team her sophomore, junior and senior seasons and earned second team honors her eighth grade and freshman seasons.

During her senior season, she averaged 16.2 points, 2.6 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game, and helped lead the Fillies to a 16-5 record. Mount Vernon was ranked ninth in the final regular season S.D. Sportswriters poll. Schmidt ended her high school basketball career with 1,450 total points and scored her 1,000th career point during her junior year.

In addition to her athletic accomplishments, Schmidt has been on the 'A' honor roll all four years of high school and will be the class salutatorian. She is also active in National Honor Society, chorus, band, and track.

Schmidt will be majoring in Biology at Mount Marty, where she will receive a Deans Academic Scholarship and Catholic Leadership Award. She is the daughter of Ken and Lynne Schmidt of Mount Vernon.

Bulls Oust Hawks For Conference Finals Bid Track

ATLANTA (AP) — Derrick Rose simply had to run the show. The MVP had plenty of help in this one, and the Chicago Bulls are off to the Eastern Conference finals for the first time since M.J. was at the controls.

Carlos Boozer scored 23 points and Rose doled out 12 assists, pushing Chicago out to a big lead in the first half that carried the Bulls past Atlanta 93-73 in the Eastern Conference semifinals Thursday night. They finished off the Hawks in six games. Chicago advanced to its first conference final since 1998, when Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen were on their way to a second three-peat. The Bulls fell on hard times after that glorious era, including three straight 60-loss seasons, but they have put together a deep, talented team that won more games than anyone during the regular season.

Yep, even more than the bally-hooded Miami Heat, whose Big Three are waiting in the next round, with a spot in the NBA Final on the line. Game 1 is Sunday in Chicago.

Rose was right in the middle of things, of course. He scored 19 points in addition to setting up all those baskets, but this was a textbook performance by the guys around him, each of them comfortable in a supporting role, each of them willing to do the dirty work at the defensive end.

The most impressive number: Chicago had assists on all but seven of its 31 baskets. Or, come to think of it, maybe it was this stat: The Hawks shot just 37 percent (27 of 74) and rarely got an open look.

Golf

The Chargers finished at 352, six strokes better than Vermillion. Canton finished third, nine shots off the pace.

Canton's Kylie Gaughenbaugh won the tournament for the fourth straight year, shooting a 76 to beat Sioux Falls Christian's Emma Wynja by four strokes. Dakota Valley's Shyler Funck finished third at 81.

C-5

"I'm hoping that I can do the same as what I did in the 800," Jacobsen chuckled. "In the 1600, it's tough to know whether I should run in front of the competitors or with them. I guess I'll be doing what my coaches tell me to do."

Also for the Bears, Amy Pitchard won the triple jump (35-11).

The Hartington Cedar Catholic Trojans were led by Savannah McGhee in the 100 (12.8), Rachel Loecker in the 3200 (12:36) and Katelyn Dicks in the 300 hurdles (48.2).

HCC won two of three relay races in the 400 (McGhee, Lexie Steffen, Emily Schrempp, Dicks) and the 3200 (Siera Becker, McKae Pinkelman, Schrempp and Dicks).

For Hartington, Becca Heikes set a new meet record in the pole vault at 10-feet. Heikes came into a first place tie with LCC's Kayla Wiese.

Does your carpet really need professional cleaning?

Myth #1 It Doesn't Need Cleaning - My Carpet is One or Two Years Old

A common misconception is that your carpet only needs cleaning when it looks dirty, and that a new carpet (only a year or two old) still looks pretty clean.

In reality, most of the damage has already been done by the time dirt and soiling become noticeable. The fact is that it is the soil you cannot see that does the most damage. This microscopic dirt actually breaks down the fibers of your carpet and destroys its fiber coating.

Conference track and field meet, held Thursday in Elk Point.

Led by double-winners Kecia Minihan (100 in 12.8, 200 in 27.3) and Halie McMains (1600 in 5:32.5, 3200 in 12:15.3), Canton ran away with the girls' team title, scoring 160 points to Beresford's 105. Sioux Falls Christian finished third at 103 points.

Kristin Rath (300 hurdles, 48.9) and Jaicee Ulmer (triple jump, 36-7 1/2) also won for Canton. The C-Hawks also won the 400 (52.2) and 3200 (10:09.9) relays.

Area winners on the girls' side included Elk Point-Jefferson's Bobbie McLaury (800, 2:27.2) and Caitlin Davis (long jump, 16-5 1/4), and Beresford's Kirsten Ustad (high jump, 4-11).

The Sioux Falls Christian boys finished nine ahead of Tea Area and 10 ahead of Beresford with a score of 115 points. Leading the Chargers was Harrison Hitt, who claimed the 800 (2:05.97) and 3200 (10:58.07). The Chargers also won the 3200 relay (9:08.62).

Tea's Erik Hill swept the hurdle races, clocking blazing times of 14.54 in the 110 hurdles and 38.71 in the 300 hurdles.

Beresford's Kyle McKelvey re-
