COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Jim Tressel, who guided Ohio State to its first national title in 34 years, resigned Monday amid NCAA violations from a tattoo-parlor scandal that sullied the image of one of the country's top football programs.

"After meeting with university officials, we agreed that it is in the best interest of Ohio State that I resign as head football coach," Tressel said in a statement released by the university. "The accreditation that (wife) Ellen and I have for the Buckeye Nation is irreplaceable."

Jim Tressel Resigns As Ohio State's Football Coach

Luke Fickell will be the coach for the 2011 season. He already had been selected to be the interim coach while Tressel served a five-game suspension.

Ohio State spokesman Jim Lynch said he was unaware of any buyout or severance package. He added that Tressel had returned from vacation Sunday night and met with athletic director Gene Smith, who then met with staff. Tressel typed his resignation and submitted it to Smith, he said.

Under terms of Tressel's contract, which was worth around $3.5 million a year through the 2014 season, Ohio State is not required to pay him any money or provide any benefits upon his resignation.

In a university video posted on YouTube.com, Smith said Tressel met with his Buckeyes players on Monday morning.

"Coach Tressel did what we all knew he would do," Smith said. "He did an eloquent job of explaining to the young men what transition really means and what they really needed to focus on. So he met with the team and exited."

Laugh-And-A-Half-Marathon June 18

NORFOLK, Neb. — The inaugural Laugh-and-a-half-marathon will be held June 18 in Norfolk, Neb. Event sponsors, Faith Regional Health Services and 94Rock, have partnered to ensure funds raised through the event will support pediatric needs in northeast Nebraska, especially in the area of healthcare. With hopes of encouraging healthier lifestyles, the event funds will also benefit area youth.

The event features several races including a half-marathon, a half-marathon relay, a 5K and a 1 mile kids fun run. The half marathon relay race will consist of four-person teams with members running sections of nearly 3 miles each. All races are open to runners, joggers and walkers. The latest registration date for all the races is June 15 but registration by June 1 guarantees participants will receive a t-shirt. No registrations will be accepted on race day.

The event's race organizers are scouring the local community looking for amazing talents to showcase at the event. Entertainment acts will be placed along the race routes to provide entertainment for both runners and spectators. At the end of the race, runners will vote for their favorite act with the winner receiving a $100 cash prize.

A variety of volunteer opportunities are available such as being a "human cone" to help direct runners along the course, distributing water to runners at water stations, welcoming participants and distributing race packets, aiding the course timers, or helping with set-up and clean-up.

Visit www.laughandahalfmarathon.com for more information about the races, race tips and training, entering the entertainment contest or volunteering at the event.
