Nebraska's Wilken Earns Big Ten Field Event Honors

LINCOLN, Neb. — Nebraska's Morgan Wilken has been selected as the Big Ten Female Field Athlete of the Week. The honor is the first Big Ten outdoor weekly honor for Wilken, a junior from Crofton, Neb.

Wilken won the discus at the Drake Relays, recording a toss of 183 feet, seven inches. The mark ranks her first in the Big Ten and fifth in NCAA Division I on the season. Wilken and the Huskers have their final tuneup for their inaugural Big Ten Track and Field Championships Saturday, when they host the Nebraska Invitational at Ed Weir NELIGH, Neb. — Elgin Public-Pope John claimed three of the top five spots and put all five golfers in the top 10 as it rolled to the team title at the Niobrara-Valley Invitational boys' golf tournament on Wednesday. The tournament was played at Antelope Country Club in Neligh due to the Niobrara Golf Course currently being under repair.

EPPJ's Nick Heithoff and Tyler Childers finished 1-2, shooting 77 and 79. The squad's Andrew Heithoff was in a group at 81, as was Niobrara-Verdigre's Josh Kemp. Ewing finished second at 355. Niobrara-Verdigre finished fourth at 365, with Crofton eighth at 489. TEAM SCORES: Elgin Public-Pope John 323, Ewing 355, West Boyd 360, Niobrara-Verdigre 365, Clearwater-Orchard 377, Neligh-Oakdale 386, Chambers-Wheeler Central 421, Crofton 489

NDSU's Boyer Honored

DALLAS, Texas — The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame (NFF) announced Wednesday the members of the 2012 NFF Hampshire Honor Society, which is comprised of college football players from all divisions of play who each maintained a cumulative 3.2 GPA or better throughout their college career. A total of 721 players from 232 schools qualified for membership in the society's sixth year, marking this year's class as the largest since the program's creation in 2007.

iors, defensive end Coulter Boyer, tight end Matt Veldman

NFF's current National Scholar-Athlete program greatly expanding the number of scholar-athletes the NFF can recognize each year. The program further strengthens the organization's leadership role in encouraging academic performance by the student-athletes who play football at the more than 700 college and universities with football programs nationwide. Jon F. Hanson, the chairman and founder of The Hampshire Companies, provided the endowment to launch the NFF Hampshire Honor Society in 2007. He made the contribution as part of his legacy to the organization after serving as NFF chairman from 1994-2006. He currently serves the organization as a chairman emeritus. Each player awarded with membership in this year's Honor Society will receive a certificate commemorating their achievement.

Qualifications for membership in the NFF Hampshire

Being a starter or a significant substitute in one's last year of eligibility at an accredited NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, Football Championship Subdivision, Division II, Division III, or an NAIA college or university; Achieving a 3.2 cumulative grade point average throughout entire course of undergraduate study; and Meeting all NCAA-mandated progress towards degree requirements and graduation.

Heading into this weekend's series at IPFW (doubleheader Friday, one game Saturday), USD has an outside shot of finishing second in the Summit League standings. The Coyotes are one game ahead of UMKC and just one game behind Western Illinois for fourth.

For a program new to the conference, reaching second place would be a "perfect end" to a season that began slowly but picked up steam late, Broders said echoing her own rise this season.

That'd be great for us." she said. "It shows us that we can do it, that we can beat these teams. That'll help us for sure down the
