Flags At Half-Staff To Honor Law Enforcement

PIERRE — President Barack Obama has proclaimed today (Tuesday) as Peace Officers Memorial Day and the period of May 13-19 as Police Week.

The president calls on governors of the United States to request flags at half-staff on Peace Officers Memorial Day from 8 a.m. until sunset Tuesday in honor of peace officers' contributions and sacrifices.

Gov. Dennis Daugaard encourages all South Dakotans to display flags at half-staff from their homes, offices and businesses today.

Chamber Receives 'Event Of The Year' Honor

The Yankton Area Chamber of Commerce received the "Event of the Year" award at the Mid-America Chamber Executives annual conference in Sioux Falls on Friday.

The Chamber won for the Signature Drink Contest, a competition between bartenders who raised money for the Fourth of July fireworks display. The contest had each bartender make their signature drink and allowed patrons to vote by placing cash in a special drink jar at their bar. At the end of the contest, the bartenders with the most cash in the jar (for the categories of mixed drink and non-alcoholic) were declared winners. The winners were Chris Johnson of Robbie's Lounge & Casino in the mixed drink category and Amy Mulloy of Magilly's Broadway Eatery in the non-alcoholic category.

The judges for the Event of the Year award cited the creativity of the contest, the fact it promoted members, and the charitable nature of it to raise funds for a community event.
