DAILY RECORD

POUND COUNT
Several animals are available at the Yankton Animal Shelter. For more information call the Yankton Police Department's Animal Control Officer, from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday at 668-5210. A $5 fee is required to adopt an animal. Animals can be viewed on the Humane Society Web site at www.heartlandhumanesociety.net.

DAILY RECORD POLICY
The Press and Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian.
It is the policy of the Press and Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

Man Wins Kayak Race On Mo. River in S.D.

By The Associated Press
A Minnesota man won the South Dakota Kayak Challenge on the Missouri River over the holiday weekend.
Joe Zellner of Grand Marais, Minn., finished the 72-mile course between Yankton and Sioux City, Iowa, in less than nine hours. That was about an hour faster than the time of the 2010 winner.
The race was canceled last year because of Missouri River flooding.
This year's race drew 170 kayakers. It started Saturday morning. Some kayakers didn't finish the course until Sunday morning.

Brown Bag Lunch June 1 At Museum

There will be a Brown Bag Lunch from noon-1 p.m. Friday, June 1, at the Dakota Territorial Museum, Yankton.
Dennis Povondra will present "Czech Days: 64 years of Tradition." As a Czech descendent and an active member of the annual event, Povondra will share the history of Czech Days and the origins of traditions still going strong after 64 years.
The Dakota Territorial Museum hosts a Brown Bag Lunch the first Friday of each month. The museum is located at 610 Summit Street.
