Women's Bowling Tournament, which concluded this past weekend in Rapid City. The Harding Glass I team from Vermillion finished seventh in the handicap team division, scoring a 2,631.

The duo of Hilliary Barta and Mindy Huether, bowling out of Yankton, rolled a 1,173 to rank seventh in the scratch doubles division. Yankton's Lisa Chatleain finished sixth in the singles handicap division with a 724, with Sharon Scissons tied for 10th at 708.

Yankton's Mueller Second At Lincoln Power Lifting Meet I INCOLN. Neb. — Yankton weight lifter Jeff Mueller placed second in the 165-pound men's open division at last Saturday's Nebraska State Power Lifting Meet in Lincoln, Neb. Mueller bench-pressed 242.5 pounds; dead-lifted a personal-best 468.4 pounds; and performed a squat of 176.3 pounds for a three-lift total of 887.

His bench, dead lift and three-lift total establish new South Dakota raw (unequipped) records for Junior Men (ages 20-23) in the 165-pound division.

Meet officials in Lincoln signed off on Mueller's results, so they will count as S.D. records even though the lifts were recorded outside the state, according to United States Association of Power Lift-
