Daily opinions from the P&D Sports Staff on local and national high school, college and professional sports.

As I was wandering down to the batting cages to check out the youth camp provided by the Sioux Falls Canaries baseball club Monday afternoon at beautiful Riverside Field, I stumbled upon a familiar face teaching area kids the techniques he has learned.

Yankton native and Augustana graduate Drew Heithoff reached an agreement with the Canaries on a nonroster invite.

Basically, it means that Heithoff has to "earn his spot and show them that I can play," as he says. Heithoff recently played professionally for the Schaumburg Boomers in Illinois. He spent two seasons playing for the Boomers.

A homecoming of some sort is just what he was looking for when returning to Riverside Field for the first time in years.

"It's really cool, it's been a while since I've been home — It's great to see that Yankton baseball is thriving," Heithoff said before Monday night's exhibition with the Sioux City Explorers. "The field looks great, hopefully we will come here and put on a show, being the local guy, it's cool to see all these hometown fans. Heithoff also indicated the last time he stepped on Riverside Field was "during the Yankton Terry's days." Hopefully with a few solid outings in the pre-season and practices, Heithoff can secure himself a spot on the Canaries roster.
