"It came down to me having to make a gutsy decision," she said. "For the longest time, I didn't want to make the wrong decision. But all the coaches were helpful in the whole process."

It didn't hurt, of course, to watch a former teammate in Blake perform well on the Lancers' JV team.

'I liked the coaches a lot, and hearing how successful Sam has been, I felt like it was a good place for me," Austin said. "The girls all seem to get along well. and I know they're looking to build up.

Mount Marty's second recruit announced Wednesday also joins a former teammate in Yankton.

Green averaged 11.7 points, 9.4 rebounds, 3.4 steals and 2.1 assists per game for South Central last season. She will get to play alongside Cheyenne Lambley (a sophomore post from Burke) on the Lancer roster.

Both incoming recruits figure to add to an already solid program, Schlimgen said.

"It's always nice to get South Dakota kids, and both of these are girls that are going to be nice fits for our program." he said. "They're going to have a chance to see what they can do here."

Austin and Green are the latest players to a 2013 recruiting class for Mount Marty that looks to be among the best in school history. Already signed with the Lancers are Logan Wagner (Parkston), Kellie Winckler (Andes Central), Haley Froelich (Lemmon), Denae Veldkamp (Sioux Falls Washington) and Mandy O'Malley (North Platte, Neb.).

runs batted in (52), while Lindsey Boyd is first in steals (33) and Yvon Minogue is fifth in batting average (.372).

USD's recent trip to Fargo can also give the Coyotes a slight advantage, Broders said. Of the other three teams in the Summit League Championships, USD is the only one to have actually played in Fargo this season -Fort Wayne hosted the Bison and Kansas City had its home series canceled because of weather. Their field is pretty nice, and they have a good homefield advantage; a lot of yellow and green up there," Broders said. "It was nice to play on it, so now it's like home field could be anyone's."

Having played on that field isn't necessarily an advantage, Klyse said, but is more of a familiarity.

"It's a new field, they re-did the dirt last fall," she said. "We're familiar with where we're going.'

Where the Coyotes ultimately want to go is beyond the Summit League Championships. The winner claims the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

"We're really having fun," Broders said. "We could win three games and be in the regional somewhere. That would be so much fun. That would be a great experience, for our seniors so they can play more games.

'If we could make a statement, that would be awesome."

The double elimination tournament continues Friday with three games, followed by Saturday's championship game at 1 p.m. An if-necessary second title game would be played at 3:30 p.m.

with a 40-7 1/2. He also added a 200-meter dash victory (22.7) later in the day. Kleinschmit placed third in the triple jump, then qualified for state in the 110-meter hurdles with a time of 15.9 seconds.

The Wausa girls' other victory came from distance specialist Breana Gallup, whose 12:34.0 clocking in the 3200-meter run gave her the win by nearly a minute. She also finished second in the 1600 (5:51.9) and third in the 800 (2:28.3).

"Breana's our workhorse: 800, 1600, 3200 and 4-by-4 (1600 relay)," Conn said. "Hopefully she'll get the chance to compete in the 800 and 4-by-4 at state as well."

Both times proved fast enough to qualify for state.

Gabby Swanson's runner-up finish in the 200(27.6) is the Lady Vikings' other locked-in qualifier.

Overall our kids put out their best effort," Conn said. "That's all you can ask for."

The Hartington girls were led by a throws sweep from senior Michaela Dendinger. The Wayne State recruit won the discus with a toss of 131-7 and the shot put with a toss of 39-9, but has her goals set much higher.

"For the discus, I want allclass (gold) at state," she said. "Shot put, I'd love all-class, but more realistic would be Class D champ.'

Dendinger needed a solid toss on her sixth and final throw of the day to pull past Bloomfield's Philomena Lammers in the shot put.

"There was a little pressure there," she said. "I just went in and did what I knew I could do."

Wynot's Ashley Heine won the 400 (1:01.0), finished second in the 800 (2:27.9) and helped the Lady Blue Devils to victory in the 1600 relay (4:19.5). Heine is the defending state champion in the 800.

The Hartington boys won seven events on the day, with Nick Miller and Joe Noecker each winnings sprint titles before teaming up on the Wildcats' 400 relay win. Hartington took five of six open running eventes, as Pat Wortmann won the 800 and 3200, and Adam Hochstein won the 1600.

With seven district titles and four more runners-up, the Wildcats feel good heading to state next week in Omaha, Neb.

"It looks really good," said Hochstein, a Wayne State recruit. "It will be exciting to see what we do. We have the depth."

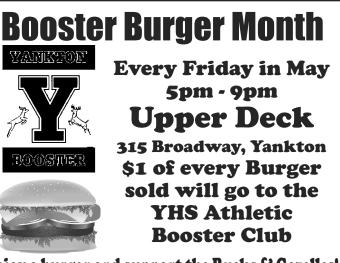

Randolph's Dylan Loberg had an odd double, winning the shot put $(47-2 \ 1/2)$ and helping the Cardinals to victory in the 1600 relay (3:36.2). Randolph also won the 3200 relay (8:21.5), with Nolan Nordhues, Levi Lackas and Nick Schmit contributing in both relay wins.

Schmit was also an individual qualifier in the 400 and 800. Also for Randolph, Jacob Svitak won the discus with a toss of 153 feet, giving the Cardinals the sweep of the throwing events.

Bloomfield got wins from Dakota Burgerhoff in the 110 hurdles (15.8) and Adam Haigh in the pole vault (12-10).
