YC Board Of Trustees Holds Annual Meeting

The Yankton College Board of Trustees gathered in Yankton April 26-27 for their two-day annual spring board meeting held at the Summit Activities Center. Board approval included: adopting the proposed 2013-14 budget; awarding twenty $1,000 scholarships for the 2013-14 academic year; continuing scholarship assistance to the Laity Empowerment Project implemented within the South Dakota Conference of the United Church of Christ; and awarding a one-time $500 grant this summer to the Yankton Children's Theatre Company to teach Yankton area youth the creative art of Vaudeville.

Looking to the future, a tour of the historic Mead Building on the Human Services Center campus, north of Yankton, was held to visualize the space available to Yankton College. Upon recommendation from the Legacy Committee and preserving a physical presence, as was affirmatively recognized by the Yankton College alumni in a 2011 survey, it was decided to execute a preliminary agreement with the Yankton County Historical Society to procure a space for Yankton College in the Mead Building.

The Alumni Advisory Board presented nominations for the Achievement, Service and Pro-Causa Awards to be given at the 2014 All-Class Reunion and an Alumni Regional Reunion in Rapid City was scheduled Saturday, Sept. 28.

Also on the agenda was the re-election of present board officers: Joan Neubauer, Chair, Yankton; and Joe Ward III, Vice-Chair, Gainville, Fla., and Dr. Charles Kaufman, president, Vermillion, and reaffirming four members whose terms had expired: Virgil Andersen, Sioux Falls; Sandra Gross, Cordova, Tenn.; Michael Marek, Vermillion; and Paul Opsahl, Yankton.

Members of the Board of Trustees and the Alumni Advisory Board travel from all corners of the nation and many parts of the Midwest to attend these meetings held twice each year to foster the ongoing affairs of the College and alumni relations.

For further information, call the Yankton College office at (605) 665-3661.

Dignitaries To Pay Tribute To Al Neuharth At USD

VERMILLION — Prominent officials, journalists, colleagues, friends, and others inspired by his vision and legacy will celebrate the life of South Dakota native Al Neuharth during a public tribute, 10 a.m., Friday, May 17, at the University of South Dakota. Neuharth, founder of SoDak Sports, USA TODAY, Freedom Forum and the Newseum, died at his Cocoa Beach, Fla., home on April 19. He was 89. Neuharth, a 1950 USD alumnus, was a frequent visitor to South Dakota in his later years. Because of his appreciation for the state, its people and their free spirit, he directed that this "final celebration" take place at USD.

DAILY RECORD POLICY The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

ARRESTS Douglas Conners, 41, Sioux Falls, was arrested Monday on a court hold. Gary Sampson, 50, Yankton, was arrested Monday on a warrant. Jeremiah Sudbeck, 20, Yankton, was arrested Monday for intentional damage to property ($400 or less), third-degree burglary and possession/receiving of stolen property ($100-$400).

INCIDENTS A report was received at 2:27 p.m. Monday that profanity had been spray painted on a vehicle in the 1000 block of Broadway. A report was received at 8:21 p.m. Monday that an intoxicated man was wandering around a shed at a business along East Highway 50. Contact was the male, and he was arrested on drug charges. The police had received various complaints on the subject at other locations earlier in the day. A report was received at 1:35 a.m. Tuesday that someone had messed with a gas tank on a vehicle parked in the 1000 block of Walnut St. The lid and cap were open. A sheriff's office report was received at 5:02 p.m. Monday of an assault along Bill Baggs Road, Yankton.
