MEAD UPDATE

PHOTO: DAKOTA TERRITORIAL MUSEUM

There is a lot of work involved with preparing for a move. The more than 35,000 items we have in our collection need to be carefully handled and rehoused before the big moving day in 2017. To help us get ready, this past week several of our volunteers and guests from the WH Over Museum took part in a workshop dedicated to the care of collection pieces. While we learned a lot over the two days, led by NEH PAG conservator Terri Schindel, we also had a lot of fun. Schindel said on Saturday that she loves coming to Yankton because of the great and dedicated people we have at the museum. Pictured above, Lola Harens and Susan Kudera work together on padding a hanger that will be used for long-term storage of one of our many military uniforms. The Dakota Territorial Museum can always use help. If you are interested in taking a hands-on approach in helping us get ready, please contact us at 665-3898, or stop by at 610 Summit Street in Westside Park, or email info@dakotaterritorialmuseum.org. We are always looking for volunteers at the museum.
