Murphy Leaves DWU

MITCHELL — Shane Murphy has resigned after three seasons as head men's basketball coach at Dakota Wesleyan, the institution announced on Monday.

Murphy, who was hired to take over the men's basketball program at Dakota Wesleyan in summer 2010, came to DWU after a two-year hiatus from coaching. During those two years, Murphy — who coached at the University of Sioux Falls from 2001-08 — worked as a recruiter for the Principal Financial Group in Sioux Falls. He is leaving Dakota Wesleyan to return to business in the private sector once again.

In three seasons at the helm, Murphy guided Dakota Wesleyan to a 53-41 overall record and a 28-30 mark in the Great Plains Athletic Conference. The Tigers went 24-9 overall and 12-6 and tied for third in the league in his first year as head coach. That same year, Dakota Wesleyan made it to the NAIA Men's Basketball National Championships in Branson, Mo., for the fifth straight season and went 1-1. This past season, the Tigers went 14-17 overall and 9-11 in the GPAC. Dakota Wesleyan finished eighth in the league and lost in the first round of the league's postseason tournament.

Murphy coached nine All-GPAC athletes in three seasons, including two first-team selections and two players-of-the-year. Brady Wiebe earned All-GPAC First Team and the league's player-of-the-year honors in 2011, and Jalen Voss was named the GPAC co-Freshman-of-the-Year in 2012. Voss also earned first-team honors as a sophomore in 2013. Both athletes were named All-Americans under Murphy's guidance: Wiebe earned All-American First Team accolades in 2011 and Voss earned All-American Honorable Mention status this past season.

Prior to coaching at USF, Murphy played and coached at the University of South Dakota. He was an assistant coach for the Coyotes from 1995-2001. He started his playing career at Drake University, but transferred to USD after two seasons. He earned all-conference, all-region and All-America Honorable Mention honors in 1994.

The search for his replacement will begin immediately.

Batcheller Cards Hole-In-One

Batcheller made the ace on Hole No. 4, hitting the 156-yard shot with an 8-iron. Golfing with him were Mark Casey, Nels Thorsted and Barry Boeckman.
