CASA Half-Marathon, 5K July

SPEARFISH — The CASA Half-Marathon and 5K Run/Walk is scheduled for Saturday, July 13, in Spearfish Canyon. Over 400 participated in the walk/run events in 2012.

The race is an annual fundraiser benefiting abused and neglected children in northwestern

South Dakota through the Northern Hills Area CASA (NHCASA) child advocacy program.

New to the race is the Heroes 5K walk/ run team events. Co-workers, friends, and family are encouraged to create a team of four or more members. Teams can dress up to showcase their company to vie for the Team Spirit award. Awards will be given to the team with the most members and the team with the fastest collective time based on their top three runners. For participants who want to do more to support the NHCASA organization, the Superhero award will be given to the team or individual raising the most pledges.

For individual participants, medals are awarded to the top three male and female half marathon winners in eight age categories and top two male and female winners in each age category for the 5K. All half marathon participants receive a participation Participants are encouraged to pre-register. You can do this online at www.nhcasa.org or print off a registration form to mail with your registration fee For more information, call the Northern Hills CASA office in Spearfish at 722-4558 or visit the website.

Ex-Jayhawks RB Miller Gets Second Chance At KU

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Sophomore running back Darrian Miller, who was dismissed from Kansas following his freshman season, is getting another chance with the Jayhawks.

Kansas coach Charlie Weis said Tuesday that Miller signed a grant-in-aid to rejoin the program. He spent last season at Butler Community College but did not play football.

The high school career rushing leader in Missouri's largest class, Miller ran for 559 yards and four touchdowns as a freshman for former Kansas coach Turner Gill. He was dismissed after the season for unspecified off-the-field issues.

He joins a crowded Kansas backfield that in cludes James Sims and Tony Pierson.

former Denver Nuggets coach Jeff Bzdelik from Air Force to coach the struggling men's basketball team after Ricardo Patton said he would step down in 2007. When Bzdelik left for Wake Forest after three seasons, Bohn hired Tad Boyle from Northern Colorado in 2010. The Buffaloes went to the NIT in Boyle's first season with the team and to the NCAA tournament the past two seasons.
