

Pierre Dorian's Grave

West 2nd Street & Riverside Drive

Pierre Dorian was the first white settler in the Yankton area. He lived among the Yankton Sioux at the time that Lewis and Clark passed through in 1804. Lewis and Clark convinced Dorian to accompany them on their expedition and to serve as an Indian interpreter. Dorian later returned to the Yankton area. His grave was located by a local historian and a memorial marker dedicated in 2002.

USS Scorpion Historical Marker

Walnut Street & Riverside Drive

Presented by U.S. Submarine Veterans WWII South Dakota Chapter, this historical marker is located near the Missouri River on the West side of the Meridian Bridge. Scorpion was launched on July 20, 1942 and their first patrol was a hunting and mining mission near Honshu, Japan in April 1943. Scorpion went on three patrols that earned her a battle star. She was involved with a series of torpedo attacks and gun battles. On Jan. 5, 1944, Scorpion rendezvoused with Herring to transfer an injured man, but heavy seas prevented a safe transfer. Scorpion and 77 courageous crewmen were never seen again.

Veterans Memorial

321 W. 3rd St.

This memorial is dedicated to all veterans, past, present and future, whose sacrifices continue to protect our freedom. The red, white and blue memorial was designed by Luken Memorials to be up-lifting and reaching to the stars with the bronze eagle taking flight. The wording on the west side "All Gave Some, Some Gave All" refers to the sacrifices of our current and past veterans. The five granite pedestals display lasered scenes particular to each branch of the military. The main feature memorial contains three different colors of granite Rubin Red - India, Sierra White - United States and Blue Pearl - Norway.

Yankton College Office

1801 Summit St., Door 9
(605) 665-3661

www.yanktoncollege.org

Yankton College was the first institution of higher learning in the Dakota Territory, providing a quality liberal arts education to thousands before closing in 1985. Among its distinctions are the Conservatory of Music, School of Theology, Clark Observatory, the first Shakespearean outdoor Garden Terrace Theatre, several Rhodes Scholars, influential faculty and a record breaking athletic program. Student records, historical documents, college memorabilia and merchandise are available at the administrative office located at the north end of the Summit Activities Center. Open Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. or by appointment.

Yankton RiverWalk

Historic Downtown Yankton and Riverside Park
(605) 665-3636

www.yanktonriverwalk.org

RiverWalk is a public art project focused on bringing outdoor sculptures to downtown Yankton and Riverside Park. New sculptures will be installed annually in May for the public to enjoy. Each year the public has the opportunity to vote for their favorite sculpture, the People's Choice Award. Votes will be tabulated at the end of each year. The winner will be announced each May, at the sculpture artist celebration. Download the RiverWalk app from www.yanktonriverwalk.org and take a self-guided walking tour while learning about each individual sculpture and artist.

31st Annual Yankton Riverboat Days & Summer Arts Festival

August 15-16-17

Fun For The Whole Family!

- Live Music Performances
- Helicopter Rides
- 5K Road Race • Rodeo
- Live Chainsaw Art Performance
- Water Fights • Kiddie Rides
- 150+ Arts & Crafts Booths
- Over 50 Food Booths
- Kiddie Parade
- Vanguard Squadron Air Show
- Bands
 - Friday – The Rumbles
 - Saturday – The Dweebs
- Amphitheater Performances

Find a complete listing of events at www.riverboatdays.com

The Dweebs!

Saturday Parade

Friday Fireworks!

Classic Car Show

Yankton Area Arts

The Chuck Stop
800 Summit St.
Yankton, SD
(605) 665-1085

STOP HERE!! For ALL Your Camping Needs!

• Firewood • Ice • Gas • Food • Drinks
• Beer • Hot Dog & Hamburger Buns
• And Much More!

FREE Koozie With Purchase of Any 18 or 24 pk of Beer

FUEL SAVER
shop. more. save.

The Chuck Stop
LLC

We're On The Way To The Lake!

800 Summit St. (next to Charlie's Pizza) • 665.1085