Lancers

In the bottom of the eight, Northwestern blew the game open after a bobble on a potential inning-ending double-play ball was followed by a three-run blast by Cortese.

“Our pen needed to do a better job of minimizing their opportunities,” Bernatow said. “Our starters battled. If our relievers throw to their potential, it chances the complexity of the game.”

MMC sent eight batters to the plate and scored four runs in the top of the ninth, but two catches by right fielder Colin Sandbulte, who came in three batters into the ninth due to a pitching change, ended the game.

The late offensive spark, though, may be something to get the Lancers' bats going for the rest of the weekend, Hollenback said.

“We just need to carry it over, keep hitting the ball and stay positive,” he said. “When

Bulls Finish Off Milwaukee 120-66

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Mike Dunleavy scored 20 points and the Chicago Bulls came close to an NBA playoff record, finally putting away the Milwaukee Bucks with a 120-66 victory in Game 6 to clinch their first-round series Thursday night.

The Bulls, who move on to face the Cleveland Cavaliers in the second round, finished four points away from the NBA playoff record for largest margin of victory. Minnesota beat St. Louis 133-75 on March 19, 1956.

The game was over early, but it still featured plenty of the intensity and bad blood that marked the first five games of the series and Dunleavy was in the middle of much of the action. He drew the foul that led to the ejection of Milwaukee's Giannis Antetokounmpo for a flagrant 2 foul just before halftime.

Draft

Winston and Mariota, who each had a year of eligibility remaining, will meet in the season opener in Tampa Bay.

The next two picks also were underclassmen. Linebacker Dante Fowler Jr. of Florida headed upstate a bit to Jacksonville, then Oakland grabbed Alabama wide receiver Amari Cooper.

The first senior taken was Iowa tackle Brandon Scherff by Washington in the fifth spot, a bit of a surprise.

Tampa has the receivers to help Winston in Vincent Jackson and Mike Evans, both of whom went over 1,000 yards last year despite shoddy quarterbacking. Tennessee can't make the same claim.

Each of those teams went 2-14 in 2014, but coaches Smith and Whisenhunt, in their first seasons in charge, survived the awful record. Now, they presumably have the main building tool.

After Scherff, the Jets, normally heavily cheered when the draft was held in New York — it's in Chicago for the first time in 51 years — were loudly booed when they went on the clock. And when they went for Southern Cal

DT Leonard Williams, rated by some as the best overall player in this crop, the jeers increased exponentially.

Why? Because the Bears were next up and need a dynamic player at the position.

Still, the local team was cheered as if Jay Cutler had just thrown for a TD when it grabbed West Virginia's game-breaking receiver, Kevin White. After trading top wideout Brandon Marshall to the Jets, the Bears had a big void there.

Dan Quinn, the Falcons' new coach after he helped build Seattle's dynamic defense, got a nice tool in Clemson linebacker Vic Beasley. The Giants selected Miami offensive tackle Ereck Flowers and St. Louis finished off the top 10, in which there were no trades, by taking Georgia running back Todd Gurley, who comes off a major knee injury.

The pick drew some reactions of disbelief from the crowd of 2,800 in the theater and 50,000 outside in what the league calls Draft Town. No RBs went in the first round of the past two drafts.

“He's special, yeah he is,” Rams coach Jeff Fisher said. “When his career is over, he'll be a great pick.”

Minnesota took the first defensive back, Michigan State's Trae Waynes, and then the proceedings got a big lift.

NORFOLK, Neb. – Crofton senior Maria Wortmann again swept the throwing events, capturing the discus (128-4) and shot put (42-8.75) titles at Thursday's Norfolk Classic in Norfolk, Nebraska.

Coyotes

The catalyst for USD scoring 11 runs on the day was the top of its batting order.

Junior Yvon Minogue had three hits in the doubleheader to set the single-season record for hits, while seniors Katie Dinning (4-for-7), Matley Jones (5-for-7), Daly (3-for-7) and Morgan Hancock (4-for-6) also had productive days at the plate.

The top of the order keyed the Coyotes to the game-one victory, as Minogue hit a game-tying, solo home run in the bottom of the seventh. Dinning and Jones followed with doubles, and Daly ended the game with a walk-off single.

The Coyotes carried that momentum into game two, scoring four runs in the bottom of the first inning and adding three more in the second.

“It would've been nice to keep it going, but we did just enough to win,” Daly said.

Up next for the Coyotes – who are back to .500 for the first time all season – is a weekend series with rival South Dakota State (22-24, 7-8). The action begins Saturday with a doubleheader starting at noon in Vermillion, followed by an 11 a.m. game Sunday.

The Jackrabbits, under first-year coach Krista Wood, have doubled their win total from last season and will take an 8-game win streak into Vermillion.

“They're playing a different style than they ever have,” Klyse said. “They beat Omaha and they've been close in a bunch of other games. We'll have to be ready for them.”

Outside of the rivalry factor, the Coyotes have larger concerns for the SDSU series, however.

North Dakota State leads the Summit League with a 13-2 conference record, and the Coyotes are second at 10-4. The top two teams receive a first-round bye in the post-season tournament in Fargo, so maintaining its spot in the standings is the key for USD.

“If we win those, we seal up the two seed,” Daly said. “That's what we want. That would be huge for us.”
