Conkling will share his new invention for hunting with the IMC crowd and is eager to hear feedback.

Season Finale

JAMES D. CIMBUREK/P&D

The Yankton Fifth Grade Concert Band was among the ensembles that performed Monday night at the annual Yankton All-School Band Concert at the YHS/Summit Activities Center main gym. The event — the final concert of the 2014-2015 school year — included performances by middle school and high school band ensembles playing a broad range of selections. The highlight was the debut of David Shaffer's "Beyond the Cosmos," a piece written in honor of longtime former band director Ted Powell. It was performed by the Combined High School Bands, under the direction of Todd Carr.

Babysitting Clinic Set For Yankton Library

The Yankton Community Library, 515 Walnut, is once again hosting a summer babysitting clinic for individuals between the ages of 12-18 on June 3-4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

There is a registration fee which must be paid at the time of registration. Class size is limited to 15 participants, and registration is required.

Stephanie Siebrandt, Yankton County 4-H Youth Development Program Assistant, is the trainer for the clinic. Topics to be discussed include safety, first aid and CPR, child development, nutrition, entertaining children and the business of babysitting. Each participant receives a guide for the course and has the opportunity to put together a babysitting "goodie bag."

Direct questions about the babysitting clinic to Stephanie Siebrandt at 605-665-3387.
