DAILY RECORD POLICY

The Press & Dakotan publishes police and sheriff reports as a public service to its readers. It is important to remember that an arrest should not imply guilt and that every person is presumed innocent until proven otherwise. When juveniles are released from jail, it is into the care of a parent or guardian. It is the policy of the Press & Dakotan to publish all names made available in the police and court reports. There are no exceptions.

- A ventriloquist's dummy which couldn't resist the temptation to make communist speeches got its Polish master in trouble. Using jokes at first to draw in Polish fair-goers, the dummy then dropped its comedian act once a crowd was assembled and started spouting communist propaganda. Polish police arrested the ventriloquist.
- Harry Houdini's widow has announced she has finally given up on trying to communicate with the magician from beyond the grave. After conducting numerous seances since his death, Mrs. Houdini switched off a tiny ruby electric globe that had burned above the late magician's picture for the past embezzlement, dating back to 2008 when he worked with a Sioux Falls insurance company. Hotchkiss was scheduled to appear today in a Sioux Falls court on those charges.

Strid met with the Douglas County commissioners Tuesday both in and out of executive session. He indicated he hadn't changed his mind and would be done the following day.

Hotchkiss also met with the commissioners, disputing his placement on administrative leave, citing the law that was used not applying to deputy sheriffs. Strid said State's Attorney Craig Parkhurst had advised him to place Hotchkiss on administrative leave, but Parkhurst now said that Strid "could" do that.

The Yankton Community Library is holding a used item sale beginning at 1 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 3, and running through 5 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6. The sale will feature reasonably priced items in all formats and genres and for all age groups.

Also, the Friends of the Library will hold their monthly book sale on Saturday, Nov. 5, running from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

For further information, contact the library at 668-5276.

Extra Time Available To File Flood Claims

PIERRE — Missouri River residents who have flood insurance now have an additional 30 days to file their claim and statement of loss for 2011 flooding, officials with the National Flood Insurance Program have announced.

Owners whose buildings or property were initially damaged by Missouri River flooding on June 1 now have until Nov. 28 to file their claims and their "proof of loss" (a statement of what was damaged by the flood). Those who first had damage on June 2 now have until Nov. 29, and so forth.

Flood insurance claims and proofs of loss usually must be filed with insurance agents within 60 days of the damage. That deadline has now been extended three times for the 2011 Missouri River flooding, to a total of 180 days.

Duerksen Exhibition Featured At G.A.R. Hall

Yankton Area Arts is currently featuring an exhibition entitled "Wild Imagination" featuring the paintings of Sioux Falls artist Russ Duerksen. The show is running through Nov. 12 at the G.A.R. Hall Art Gallery at 508 Douglas Avenue.

A First Friday reception to honor the artist will be held at 5-7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 4. There is no charge for the reception, the public is invited to attend and refreshments will be served.

Duerksen will be on hand to introduce the exhibit and speak about the inspiration behind his paintings during the Gallery Talk, which will begin at 5:30 p.m.

Rena Hebda of Hebda Farms will be providing delicious bounty from the fall harvest and will be available to interact as well.

The G.A.R. Hall Art Gallery and Yankton Area Arts are located at 508 Douglas. The gallery is open to the public free of charge from 1-5 p.m. weekdays and from 1-3 p.m. on Saturdays. For more information, call 665-9754, email yaa@iw.net or see www.YanktonAreaArts.org.

First Friday is a monthly event designed to promote access to and celebrate the arts in the community.
